

DUTCH WEEK 2010

MONDAY | March 22 | 7:00pm

"Holland Waterland: Centuries of Water Management"

Professor Hendrik Haitjema, Indiana University Bloomington, SPEA

Professor Haitjema will offer an overview of water management issues in The Netherlands.

Faculty Room of the University Club, IMU

WEDNESDAY | March 24 | 3:00pm

"Ouwehoeren: Verbal and Visual Wit in the Early Modern Low Countries"

Professor Bret Rothstein, Indiana University Bloomington, Department of Art History

Professor Rothstein will provide an exploration of both the difficulty of seeing and its pleasures in the work of Jan Sanders van Hemessen.

Faculty Room of the University Club, IMU

WEDNESDAY | March 24 | 8:30pm

Guest Recital by violinist Frederieke Saeijs

Ford-Crawford Hall of the Simon Music Center

FRIDAY | March 26 | 7:00pm

"Writer on the Run"

Kader Abdolah, one of the best contemporary Dutch authors will tell about his work, with emphasis on his last three books: The House of the Mosque, The messenger, De Koran. (All lectures are in English)

Presidents' Room of the University Club, IMU

Dutch Week is Sponsored by:

IU Department of Germanic Studies | IU Dutch Program
IU West European Studies | De Nederlandse Taalunie