NEAL BENEZRA

Neal Benezra, chief curator of the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, DC, received his doctorate from Stanford University; "The Murals and Sculpture of Joseph Albers".

In 1993, Benezra served as co-curator of the Bruce Nauman exhibit at the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis. The Nauman exhibit toured the US and Spain. He was curator and author of the catalogue for the works of Martin Puryear at The Art Institute of Chicago, in 1991. Over the last eight years, Benezra has served as curator for many exhibits.

In 1993, Benezra received the Award for Distinguished Exhibition 1992 for the Martin Puryear collection by the College Art Association of America. Benezra was also awarded the Outstanding Exhibition 1991-92 for the Puryear exhibit by the Association of International Art Critics.
