

Nominating Committee Charges 2008-09

1. Hold elections according to Constitution and Bylaws.
2. Create a manual for future nominating committees. This manual should describe the process to be followed in each election throughout the academic year. It should reference the relevant sections of the Bylaws or other policies, and it should identify practices the committee has followed in the past.