Alignment of IU South Bend Distinguished Teaching Award

INDIANA UNIVERSITY SOUTH BEND

SECTION 1

Purpose of Alignment

Purpose of Alignment

- The IU System recently changed the criteria for the Distinguished Teaching Award and the contents of the required dossier
- This causes faculty to create two different dossiers if they desire to be nominated for both our campus and the all-IU award

Alignment Changes

Changes

- Alignment to all-IU
  - Requiring the nominee's Teaching Philosophy (previously encouraged)
  - Reflection on course evaluations section adds clarity
  - Adds previously optional sections of:
    - Research and Public Activity Related to Teaching
    - Academic Student Counseling and Mentoring
- Additional Recommendations
  - Add a section with IU South Bend specific criteria
    - Examples of course syllabi, assignments, tests, quizzes, and handouts
  - Allowing those who submitted their applications in 2021 to have the opportunity to update their dossier to the all-IU format or choose to move forward for the next award cycle with the previously submitted dossier
