Emerging Trends in Libraries

Date: May 21st, 2011 Saturday

The Conference Planning Committee is seeking several volunteers to help for the conference on May21st, 2011. This is a great opportunity to promote Indiana University Libraries and meet with academic librarians from other regions.

You can enjoy the conference for free and have your lunch covered, we need help with one or more things:

moderating presentations, communicating with virtual conference people, helping with food catering and so on. If you are interested, feel free to contact Hong Cheng chengh@ius.edu for more details.

This year, the conference has a line-up of trendy presentations, from projects to case studies, from knowledge management to information access, from supporting faculty and students to discussion on social media marketing. Check out the program at http://www.midwest.cala-web.org/annual_program/annual_program2011/progra...

Can't make the conference? You can still join the virtual conference by filling out the virtual conference registration form. It's free!

Prizes! We have several drawings throughout the program; prizes include gift cards from iTunes, Starbucks, Marathon and more!

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. We look forward to seeing you on May 21 at the beautiful Indiana University Southeast campus!
