No. 23 -- 1971/72

1. Bowman Interviews: The three-day visit of Dr. Sylvia E. Bowman, Chancellor for Regional Campus Administration, to the IUSB campus will begin Monday.

   In her administrative review, Dr. Bowman desires to interview as many faculty members as possible who have been with the institutuion for more than a year. Twenty-minute interview periods remain available, primarily on Tuesday and Wednesday. For appointments, call Mrs. Meuninck, Ext. 219.

   The interviews will be held in the Alumni Office, 1005 S. 20th St., on the east edge of the campus.

   All faculty and staff members are invited to the reception for Chancellor Bowman, sponsored by the Alumni Assn. and the Graduating Council of the Class of 1972, from 3 to 5 p.m. Monday in the faculty lounge in Northside Hall.

2. Copying Copyrighted Materials: The law prohibits the reproduction of copyrighted books, pamphlets, and similar printed materials in any quantity without permission of the copyright owners.

   The IUSB Business Office notes, further, that in many cases the reproduction of quantities of materials by the IUSB duplicating department results in higher costs than the purchase of the original materials would entail.

   For both reasons, the Business Office urges faculty and staff members to examine material they wish reproduced, and to refrain from ordering illegal or costly duplication by the campus print shop. The Purchasing Department offers assistance in deciding whether it is more economical to duplicate or buy materials in which there is no copyright factor.

3. Symphony Cancelled: The Bethel College Music-Lecture Series office has asked that subscribers be notified that the Indianapolis Symphony concert scheduled for Friday (February 18) has been cancelled by a musicians' strike. The next program in the series is a performance of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night at 8 p.m. on Friday, February 25, in the Goodman Auditorium at Bethel College.

4. Faculty Activities: The 1971 "Helm," yearbook of Bethel College, has been awarded a first-class certificate by the Associated Collegiate Press. James F. Roe, Associate Lecturer in English at IUSB and Assistant Professor of English at Bethel, is faculty adviser to the publication.

Two super-8 films of Matthew Zivich, Fine Arts, were accepted for the 1972 Ohio University Film Festival, held at the John Baker Calhoun University Center in Athens, Ohio. The program was divided into four categories -- 16 mm documentary, 16 mm imagistic, 8 mm, and Super-8 -- and ran from January 21 through January 23. The winning Zivich films, A.I.S.I.A. and TV Study, 1970, utilized a technique of using images from a television screen. Michael Snow, prize-winning (Wavelength) filmmaker, participated in the judging and was a guest speaker at the event.
