

- February 18th, 2011 - Volume 38, Issue 7

This Week in IUL News

- Staff News
- InULA Research Incentive Grants Update
- An Afternoon of Professional Development
- Film Movement Spring Series

Staff News

Andrew Rhoda was promoted to Rare Book Cataloger in the Lilly Library, effective 2/17/2011. Andrew's previous position was ALF Project Catalog Specialist in Lilly. Congratulations Andrew!

Submitted by: Susie Trisler, Library Human Resources, IUB

Library News and Events

InULA Research Incentive Grants Update

Applications are being accepted for the next round of InULA Research Incentive Grants.

The deadline is APRIL 15, 2011.

The Research Incentive Fund Guidelines and Application Form are online.

To apply, go to: <http://www.indiana.edu/~inula/opportunities/index.html>

Submitted by: Lynda Fuller Clendenning, Chair, InULA Grants Committee

An Afternoon of Professional Development

The InULA Programs and Social Committee would like to invite you to attend "An afternoon of Professional Development" on Feb. 22, starting at 1:00 pm. in Room 043. We will offer three sessions:

1:00-2:00 Creating Accessible Presentations (Christina Wray)

Sharing PowerPoint presentations and handouts with students are integral parts of teaching and learning today. But, are you sure that your materials are accessible to students with disabilities? Join us for a look at ways that you can create more accessible presentations and handouts as well as further resources

2:00-3:00 Forget the Paper & Pen: Taking Notes Digitally

(Chanitra Bishop)

Would you like to take and access your notes digitally? Would you like to learn about applications you can use to take notes besides Microsoft Word or Google Docs? Are you interested in decreasing your carbon footprint? If you answered yes to any of these questions, this workshop is for you! In this workshop you will learn about applications you can use to take notes. It will cover Evernote and other tools that allow you to easily create and update your "To Do List", take meeting notes, and even save web pages and attach documents.

3:00-4:00 Introduction to the World History in Video Database

(Monique Threatt)

World History in Video is a wide-ranging collection of critically acclaimed documentaries which allows students and researchers to explore human history from the earliest civilizations to the late twentieth century. The video content offered here is truly global in scope, covering Africa and the Americas, Asia, Europe, the Middle East, and Oceania. Upon completion, the collection will contain 1,000 hours of streaming video that offers access to more than 1,750 important, critically acclaimed documentaries from filmmakers worldwide. Feel free to e-mail Monique Threatt (mthreatt@indiana.edu) in advance if you are interested to search a particular topic.

If you are unable to join us in person and would like to attend, we will be broadcasting these workshops at: http://breeze.iu.edu/inula_prodev/

Please feel free to come and go as your schedule allows!

Submitted by: Christina Wray, Librarian Center for Disability Information and Referral, Indiana Institute on Disability and Community, IUB

Film Movement Spring Series

Join the IUB Libraries in its presentation of STORM, Wednesday, February 23, 4:30pm, Wells Library, E174. Hannah Maynard, prosecutor at the International Criminal Tribunal in The Hague, is leading a trial against a former commander of the Yugoslavian National Army who is accused of the deportation and later killing of dozens of Bosnian-Muslim civilians. When a key witness commits suicide, it looks like the case will unravel, however Hannah refuses to give in. Hoping to uncover new findings, she travels to the witness' burial in Sarajevo and meets his sister Mira who she senses has much more to say than she is willing to admit. Despite threats of violence, Mira reluctantly agrees to testify at The Hague. However, she and Hannah must both risk life and limb to make it to the court, only to discover that there are traitors among their own ranks.

For more information about upcoming FMS films, visit the M&RS web page at: <http://www.libraries.iub.edu/index.php?pageId=1002305>.

Submitted by: Monique Threatt, Media & Reserve Services, IUB