

Resolution of Welcome to Vice Provost for Student Affairs Lori Reesor

Whereas, after a nationwide search, Lori Reesor was appointed as IU Bloomington Vice Provost for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and assumed her responsibilities in July 2016, and

Whereas, the Bloomington Faculty Council has both legislative and consultative authority over matters of student life, including student rights, responsibilities, and conduct, and

Whereas, the safety and well-being of all students, the diversity of the campus community, and the opportunities for growth and development outside the classroom all are proper concerns of the faculty acting through shared governance, because they affect the University's academic enterprise,

Therefore, be it resolved that the members of the Bloomington Faculty Council warmly welcome Lori Reesor to the IU community as Vice Provost and as a faculty colleague, and look forward to working collaboratively with her and her staff toward the goals of a safe, diverse, engaging, and vibrant campus community.
