Biography

Jazz Ensemble and Twin Cities Jazz Orchestra director Darrel Tidaback, began his college teaching career at St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas in 1990. While in San Antonio, Mr. Tidaback could be heard with numerous jazz groups and as a frequent performer in the San Antonio Symphony Orchestra's pops concerts. He has been a member of the IUSB music faculty since 2002. Currently Mr. Tidaback may be heard with jazz groups throughout the region and as a performer with the South Bend Symphony Orchestra, the South Bend Chamber Singers, the Vesper Chorale and the LaPorte County Symphony Orchestra. He has performed with such jazz luminaries as Rosemary Clooney, Bucky Pizzierelli, Gene Bertoncini, Mose Allison, Louis Belson, Don Menza, Ernie Watts, Marshall Royal, Bunky Green, Cal Collins, Alan and Warren Vache, Butch Miles, and the late Franz Jackson. He appeared in concert and performed on NPR with jazz legend Lionel Hampton. Mr. Tidaback has also accompanied such well known singers and entertainers as Bob Hope, Jerry Lewis, Carol Channing, Mitzi Gaynor, Dionne Warwick, Toni Tennille, William Warfield, Yma Sumac, and Shirley Jones, and has performed with Chanticleer, the Drifters, the Coasters and Little Anthony and the Imperials. He has performed in numerous music festivals around the country including the Texas Jazz Festival, the Fiesta Jazz Festival, the Southwest Guitar Festival, the Elkhart Jazz Festival, and the Oregon Festival of American Music. For more than twenty years Mr. Tidaback has been an arranger and performer with the contemporary chamber ensemble, Musical Offerings. He has performed on more than twenty recordings including his own Timelines. Mr. Tidaback holds an undergraduate degree in music from Saint Mary's University and a Master of Music degree in string bass performance from the University of Texas, San Antonio.
