William Evans Jenkins Award 2011: Call For Nominations

The William Evans Jenkins Award 2011 Committee hereby invites you to identify and nominate potential candidates for the 2011 award.

Named for William Evans Jenkins, former Chief Librarian of Indiana University, this award may be presented annually to a current or former librarian on the Bloomington campus, in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the Indiana University Libraries or to the library profession in general. While eligibility for the award is limited to former and current Bloomington campus librarians, nominations may be made by any member of the Indiana University community.

Outstanding BLF colleagues deserve our recognition and appreciation. William Evans Jenkins should be remembered for his vision for the Indiana University Libraries and for his commitment to the profession as a whole. By nominating a librarian you admire and respect, you are keeping the memory of William Evans Jenkins alive and inspiring others to perform at the highest level. Nominations for this award may be submitted individually or jointly.

How to submit:

An "intention to nominate" message must be sent to Betty Davis (betdavis@indiana.edu) by November 30, 2010.
