1. FACULTY/STAFF NEWS

Effective February 4, Adam Gluckman accepted the Assistant to the Acting Head, Music Library/Head, Chemistry Library position. Previously, Adam was Assistant Head of the Swain Hall Library.

We will be welcoming Martha Brogan, Michael Kaplan, Lila Fredenburg and Phyllis Davidson at a reception on February 25 from 3-4 p.m. in the Main Libraries' Staff Lounge. Come enjoy the festivities and meet our new Collection Development Director, Technical Services Director, Human Resources Officer, and Information Technology Director.

Kristine Brancolini has a chapter and filmography in "Insights from Film Into Violence and Oppression: Shattered Dreams of the Good Life" (Westport, CT.: Praeger, 1998), edited by John Lovell. The chapter is entitled "A Bibliographic Essay on Using Film to Teach about Peace Studies and Structural Violence."

2. HERBERT S. AND VIRGINIA WHITE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARD

The 1997-1998 White Award Committee is pleased to announce that Robert Goehlert, Librarian for Economics, Political Science, and Criminal Justice, IU Bloomington, has been selected as the recipient of the Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award. This is the fourth year of the award established by the Whites to support individually motivated professional growth.

Mr. Goehlert's project is the complete updating and redesign of a web-based bibliographic database on the Australian Parliament. The award provides $2500 in partial support of the travel expenses to and within Australia to carry out his research.

The committee wishes to thank and recognize all the applicants who formed a very strong pool. We appreciate the interesting and well-prepared proposals received for consideration.

--Mary Krutulic, Chair, White Award Committee

3. CAREER EXPLORATION DAY

On April 17, 1998 Bloomington High School North (BHSN) will have Career Exploration Day. This day is one where students spend at least 6 hours "on the job" with an adult. If your department is interested in hosting a student who may be interested in library work, you may obtain details and an application form from the Library Administration office.

Also, if you are interested in helping the high school as a guest speaker for the Career Development course, contact Adrian Himm, Counselor at BHSN, at 330-7724 or 349-4702 by March 1.

4. POSITION READVERTISED

6. WYLIE HOUSE REOPENS WITH SEED SALE

Wylie House Museum will usher in the new gardening season on Saturday, March 7, with the annual Wylie House Seed Sale from 10 am to 4 pm. Visitors to the Seed Sale can choose from thirty-four historic varieties of flower, herb and vegetable seed--all grown by safe and natural methods in the Wylie House Museum garden, and germination tested to insure viability. Many of these varieties, though common in the early to mid-19th century, are now rare.

A seed swap table will give local seed-savers an opportunity to exchange free seeds from their own gardens. And a resource area with information on seed-saving and heirloom gardening will prove helpful to beginning gardeners and veterans alike.

Free guided tours of Wylie House are offered Tuesday through Saturday from 1 to 4 pm, March through November. For more information, call 855-6224 or e-mail bywillia.

7. SEARCH AND SCREEN COMMITTEE APPOINTED

The search and screen committee for the Digital Library System Administrator position has been appointed. The members are: John Anderies, Music Library; Jon Dunn (Chair), Information Technology; Dennis Gillespie, Information Technology; Perry Willett, LETRS/SALC; and Gary Wiggins, Music Library.

8. AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR INFORMATION SCIENCE

Indiana Chapter

Mark your calendar and make reservations now for the March 5 (Thursday) IASIS Meeting and Program:

Ethics for Information Professionals: Neutrality or Advocacy?

During the past ten years, there has been an explosive growth in research and publications on information ethics. An increasing number of institutions of higher education have begun including information ethics in curricula of LIS, IS, IT and CS programs.

You are an information professional, so what do ethics have to do with you?

Learn the answer to this question and more in a special presentation by Martha (Marti) Montague Smith, author of "Information Ethics," a chapter in the newly-published Annual Review of Information Science and Technology (ARIST), Volume 32, 1997. Smith is an Assistant Professor with the IU School of Library and Information Science, on the campus of IUPUI.

9. POSITIONS AVAILABLE AT THE IUPUI UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Position - Director of Library Information Systems

Description - As a member of the Senior Management Team of the University Library at IUPUI, the successful applicant will participate in the general policy making activities for the organization. The person holding this position provides the leadership and management of three library teams--Operations, Digital Library, and Client Support--in a new high technology urban university library. The position includes responsibility for technology planning in a team-based organization. The position will serve as a liaison to the Information Technologies and as a technology resource to the IUPUI campus community. In this role, the campus will have a resource in planning, technology, project development and review.

Position available - now open

Qualifications - Required: BA/BS degree is required with an advanced degree highly desirable in Computer Science, Computer Technology, Library Science, or related field. Five years of experience with UNIX, Microsoft Windows, and Novell server support, programming design, installation and maintenance. Five years of experience in management of a technology group is required as is the knowledge and experience in managing team-based projects and organizations. Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively, orally and in writing, and to interact successfully with colleagues, administrators, staff, patrons, and donors.

Salary - $55,000+

Fringe Benefits: A month's vacation, sick leave, major medical plans available; dental plan, group life insurance, TIAA-CREF annuity plan.

Closing: Applications or nominations received by April 1, 1998 will be guaranteed consideration. Position remains open until filled.

Position - Herron Art Library Team Leader

Position Description - As the Herron Art Library Team Leader, the individual will serve as manager of the Herron Art Library. The staff is involved in traditional and electronic activities of an Art Library. This position is responsible for communicating the needs of the library, faculty and students as they relate to the fulfillment of the mission of the organization. The Herron Art Library Team Leader will play a key role in development of instructional teams with the Herron School of Art faculty. Participation in planning the proposed new Herron School of Art Library will be a major responsibility of this position as well. Coordination with University Library and its operational teams must be a hallmark of this successful administrator. Service on appropriate University, School of Art and Library committees is to be expected.

Qualifications: Accredited MLS together with a record of three years appropriate administrative budgetary, and supervisory experience, preferably in an academic, research or art library. Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively, orally and in writing, and to interact successfully with colleagues, administrators, staff, patrons, and faculty. Ability to meet the requirements of a tenure-track appointment.

Preferred: Degree in Fine Arts or other advanced degree in related area and/or experience in an art library; experience and/or knowledge of facility planning/building programs, and experience with library automation.

Salary: Dependent upon qualifications and experience.

Fringe Benefits: A month's vacation, sick leave, major medical plans available, dental plan; group life insurance, TIAA/CREF annuity plan.

Closing: Applications or nominations received by March 15, 1998 will be guaranteed consideration. Position remains open until filled.

Position: Visiting Cataloging Librarian (2 Years Visiting)

Position Description: The successful candidate will serve as a primary member of the Library's Cataloging Team and as a secondary member of another team. Cataloging duties include complex copy and original cataloging, primarily of monographs, and other Team activities as needed. Assignment to the secondary team will be made according to the applicant's qualifications and interests. Possibilities include instruction, reference and web development.

Qualifications: Required: ALA accredited MLS; cataloging experience, including experience with AACR2R, LC classification, LCSH, LCRI, OCLC Passport, and a local integrated library system; an ability to work in a complex team-based environment and with a diverse user group; strong verbal and written skills; and knowledge of library information technology. Academic library and Horizon system experience is preferred.

Salary: $30,000

Fringe Benefits: A month's vacation time, sick leave, major medical plans available, dental plan, group life insurance, TIAA/CREF annuity plan.

Closing:

Applications or nominations received by March 20, 1998 will be guaranteed consideration. Position remains open until filled.
