A Crime in Mind: Pursuing the Criminal in Popular Culture and Fiction (presented by L. Anne Delgado)

From Jack the Ripper to Hannibal Lecter to Dexter Morgan, the idea of the criminal has inspired both fear and faint admiration. This presentation will focus on our obsession with the criminal - and the crime - in popular culture and fiction. We will look at texts from the 18th and 19th century, including the Newgate Calendar and The Illustrated Police News, that illustrate the complexity of this obsession. We will also look at the Penny Dreadful, a popular literature form from the Victorian period that glamorized and inspired criminal behavior among the working classes.

Crime Collections at the Lilly Library (presented by Rebecca Baumann)

Most visitors to the Lilly Library view beautiful and historically significant books such as the Gutenberg Bible and Shakespeare's First Folio. But lurking in our stacks are hidden criminals, annals of dastardly crimes, and long-forgotten secrets. In this visit, we will see some of the works discussed by Professor Delgado, as well as examples from the infamous "London Low Life" collection of 19th-century ephemera relating to the grimy underbelly of Victorian London. Space for the 2pm Lilly exhibit is limited to the first 33 reservations.

L. Anne Delgado is a Lecturer in the Department of English who frequently teaches courses on detective and crime fiction. Her published work includes essays about the history of ectoplasm and the connections between Spiritualism and science in the 19th century.

Rebecca Baumann is the Education and Outreach Librarian of the Lilly Library. She conducts class sessions on a wide variety of topics related to the Lilly's collections, with a special focus on 19th and 20th-century pulp fiction and paperbacks.

HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

SEEKING NEW LEADERSHIP

Since 2006, our dedicated nature enthusiasts, Eleanor Lahr and Bob Dodd, have organized four different hikes each year for the Hiking Interest Group. Participants have learned a lot about Indiana history, geology, flora and fauna.

After the June 28th hike to Stone Head Nature Preserve, Eleanor and Bob retired as the official organizers of this robust group.

Although they leave big hiking boots to fill, Eleanor and Bob are hopeful that a new leader will step up to the plate. (Could that someone be YOU?!?) Interested hikers should contact Eleanor for more information on how much fun it can be to serve in this role. She has 10 years of experience to prove it!

Please call Eleanor Lahr at 812-339-4209 or email elahr@indiana.edu
