BOARD MEMBER PROFILE
Meet our Co-Presidents
~ Ruth & Joe Miller ~

Ruth Miller grew up on a farm in western Illinois—with her own horse—and went to the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana where she majored in French, won a Woodrow Wilson fellowship to earn a Masters in French at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and taught French at five levels in Nigeria where she was a Peace Corps Volunteer with her husband, Joe.

Ruth and Joe arrived in Bloomington in August 1969 and raised two daughters here. Ruth taught French in the local schools for a few years before becoming Associate Director of the IU Office of International Services, a position she held until retirement in 2002. In addition to serving as Co-President of the UClub Board of Directors, Ruth enjoys volunteering for Meals on Wheels, Area 10 Agency on Aging, and St. Mark's Church.

The Millers' family includes one grandchild who lives in Japan, plus four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren here in Bloomington.

Joe Miller was born and raised in Lincoln, Illinois. He studied for a B.A. in Philosophy at the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana and earned a J.D in Law at the University of Chicago. After marrying Ruth, Joe taught law at the University of Nigeria for two years as a Peace Corps Volunteer.

The Millers returned to the U.S with new daughter, Lisa, and settled in Madison, Wisconsin where Joe studied economics at the University of Wisconsin. With his Ph.D. in Economics, Joe was hired by the Kelley School of Business at IU in 1969. He became a Professor of Marketing, specializing in international marketing. Joe has also taught short-term courses in Malaysia, Egypt, Bangkok, Copenhagen, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan and China.

Since retirement, Joe has stayed busy chairing the Emeriti House program committee, playing tuba with the Bloomington Community Band and with the Bloomington Brass Band, helping with Meals on Wheels and the Area 10 Agency grocery delivery program, chairing the retirees' group at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, and now serving as Co-President of the UClub.

THANK

Thank You Joe and Ruth for serving as fearless leaders of the University Club Board of Directors 2016-2017.

We are fortunate and grateful !

THE LUNCHEON CLUB proudly presents
Award-Winning Independent Journalist and Author

DOUGLAS A. WISSING

*Wednesday, September 21, 11:45am
 at the University Club*

Douglas Wissing will discuss his reporting in insurgency-wracked Afghanistan and his newest book, Hopeless but Optimistic, which is based on his most recent embed with US troops—his third in the war-torn country.

This is a close-up of the American war in Afghanistan. It's Afghan life on the streets; the culture and institutions that anneal them; the poetry that enriches them. It includes the perspectives of cynical military lifers and frightened short-timers; true believers and amoral grabbers; Americans and Afghans trying to make sense of two counties surreally contorted by war-birthed extractive commerce. His is a story that arcs from cynicism to a hard-won equanimity.

Mr. Wissing has contributed to a wide range of news media and journals, including The New York Times, Independent on Sunday (UK), Foreign Policy, Asia Times, Forbes Life, National Geographic Traveler, CNN.com as well as the BBC and NPR radio networks. Among his ten books, Douglas is the author of "Funding the Enemy: How US Taxpayers Bankroll the Taliban" and "Pioneer in Tibet: The Life and Perils of Dr. Albert Shelton". He has also spoken widely on the Afghanistan war, from Brian Lamb's C-Span Q&A show to the Jerry Doyle Show.

HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

SEEKING NEW LEADERSHIP

Since 2006, our dedicated nature enthusiasts, Eleanor Lahr and Bob Dodd, have organized four different hikes each year for the Hiking Interest Group. Participants have learned a lot about Indiana history, geology, flora and fauna.

After the June 28th hike to Stone Head Nature Preserve, Eleanor and Bob retired as the official organizers of this robust group.

Although they leave big hiking boots to fill, Eleanor and Bob are hopeful that a new leader will step up to the plate. (Could that someone be YOU?!?) Interested hikers should contact Eleanor for more information on how much fun it can be to serve in this role. She has 10 years of experience to prove it!

Please call Eleanor Lahr at 812-339-4209 or email elahr@indiana.edu
