1. Head Librarian Job Posting

Head Librarian, Indiana University School of Dentistry

The Indiana University School of Dentistry, located in Indianapolis on the IUPUI campus, is recruiting for an energetic and visionary librarian to provide leadership for collections, digital information resources and operations of the School of Dentistry Library. Responsibilities include reference and research support, development and maintenance of the Library's web site, bibliographic instruction, including support for the School Dentistry's problem-based learning curriculum, collection development, oversight of the School of Dentistry's archives program, and grant writing. The Head Librarian also serves on a number of school, campus and university committees. The successful candidate for the position must be able to meet the responsibilities and requirements of faculty status in a tenure-track position. The School of Dentistry is the only dental school in Indiana and trains dentists, dental hygienists, and dental assistants, as well as offering post-D.D.S. programs in dental specialty areas such as orthodontics and pediatric dentistry. The Library has a collection of over 50,000 volumes and serves faculty, staff and students, as well as alumni, dental health practitioners throughout the world and the general public. The Library is administered by the School of Dentistry, but participates in a variety of cooperative programs with the other Indiana University Libraries, including a library automation system and electronic database offerings.

Required: ALA-accredited MLS degree and at least 5 year so post-MLS experience in progressively responsible administrative assignments, including demonstrated ability in personnel management and in budgeting. Academy of Health Information Professionals membership is highly desirable. Effective communication skill experience with implementation and management of electronic information (OCLC, MEDLINE, etc.) web site development and maintenance, good customer service skills, and a team player. Must be self-motivated and have experience with leadership and planning. Grant writing and reference experience are preferred. Experience in a health sciences library is desired but not required. Salary and rank commensurate with qualifications and experience. Indiana University is an EEO/AA employer. Send curriculum vitae including three references to Dr. Susan Zunt, 1001 W. 10th Street, Room R-4201, Indianapolis, IN 46202.

2. Videoconference Report

Many thanks go to InULA for funding our proposal for telecast of the videoconference, "De-mystifying the Licensing of Electronic Resources." The videoconference was co-sponsored by ARL and the Special Libraries Association and funded in part by Lexis-Nexis. InULA's funding enabled us to televise the program at IUB in Radio/TV 108 on March 4, 1999, from 1:00-4:00 p.m. The funding also allowed us to videotape the conference for those who were unable to attend. The video has been cataloged (Z653.7 .D43 1999) and is available with handouts at the Media/Reserve Services in the IUB Main Library. It may be checked out for overnight or borrowed by librarians from other campuses for a longer period. (Consult Colleen Talty at 855-1650; ctalty@indiana.edu)

3. IULFC Meeting

The next IULFC meeting will be held via VIC on Monday, April 19 from 9-11 A.M. Agenda items for this meeting may be submitted to Chris Long, IULFC Secretary, (celong2@iupui.edu) prior to April 12, 1999. Here are the locations:

IUB - Owen Hall 102
IUPUI - ES 2101
IUSE - Knobview 112
IUSB - Northside 038

4. Promotion And Tenure Workshops

The current Promotion and Tenure Committee is sponsoring three on-site promotion and tenure workshops this spring which will be held at the following times and places:

Tuesday, March 30th - Bloomington - Leo Dowling International Center - 1:00-3:30 p.m.

Thursday, April 22 - Indianapolis - Location to be announced - 1:00-3:30 p.m.

Monday, April 26 - Fort Wayne - Location to be announced - 1:00-3:30 p.m.

The workshops will focus on three areas:

- a.) The promotion and tenure process
- b.) Criteria for promotion and tenure
- c.) The dossier

Sample dossiers will be available at each workshop.

Any librarian from any location is free to attend any or all of the workshops. Please advise Betty Andis at 812-855-8196 or e-mail her at bandis@indiana.edu of your plans for attendance at your earliest convenience.

--Lila Fredenburg, Human Resources Officer

5. Diversity Day At IU Bloomington

Please mark your calendars for Libraries Diversity Day which will be celebrated on March 31st from 1:30 to 2:30 pm in the Media Showing Room. This year, in addition to asking for contributions of foods from different cultures to share among ourselves, we will also feature an informal program.

Julie Knost, IU's Director of Affirmative Action, will speak to us about the meaning of diversity and how we can be a part of the University's efforts in this regard. The Dean will also address the issue of diversity within the Libraries.

Everyone is strongly encouraged to attend and find out what diversity really is. Those attending will not be charged for time off since this is considered a training session.

Please contact Betty Andis or Suzann Easter by telephone or e-mail as to attendance and/or food that you plan to bring.

6. HPER Library Auction

You're Invited To The 13th Annual HPER Library Auction

The 13th annual HPER Library auction is scheduled for Thursday, April 1, 1999 from 11:30am - 1:00pm in Room 125 (HPER Faculty Lounge). Please make a note on your calendar and plan to join us in the festivities. Now would be a good time to check for items no longer needed or used. Let us help you find a new home for them. Donations in the past have ranged from home cooked gourmet meals to hand made bluebird houses to airplane rides to used barbecue grills. Use your imagination and donate to a worthy cause. Funds raised from past auctions have been used to purchase needed computers, books, and other equipment for the HPER Library.

Please plan to donate and attend this exciting event. There will be a special category of auction items for "students only" so encourage students to attend as well. Contact Erla Heyns HEYNSE at 5-4398 or Ada Pennington PENNINGT at 5-9314 to make donations or for information.

*Note: Lunch will be served by the HPER Staff Council. It will be Sloppy Joes, chips, and pickles and it will cost $2.00.

7. Upcoming Events At IU South Bend

Please mark your calendars for these exciting upcoming events at IU South Bend.

March 30, 1999, 7:00 p.m. Congressman Tim Roemer, U. S. Representative to the House for Indiana's Third Congressional District, will speak at a public lecture titled, "Government Information and the Federal Depository Library Program."

April 11, 1999, 7:00 p.m. John Perry Barlow will speak at Indiana University South Bend in the Main Auditorium, Northside Hall. The public is invited to attend. Barlow will speak on "Understanding Cyberspace." A reception will follow the lecture.

John Perry Barlow is a retired Wyoming cattle rancher, a former lyricist for the Grateful Dead, and co-founder of the Electronic Frontier Foundation. Since May of 1998, he has been a Fellow at Harvard Law School's Berkman Center for Internet and Society. He was born in Sublette County, Wyoming in 1947, was educated there in a one room schoolhouse, and graduated from Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut with an honors degree in comparative religion in 1969. More information about Mr. Barlow may be found at his website, <http://www.eff.org/homes/barlow.html>

These events are part of IUSB's "Year of the Library" celebration. This year-long calendar of events honors the 100th birthday of Franklin D. Schurz and the 10-year anniversary of the Schurz Library building. For more information, please call Nancy Colborn at 219-237-4321  or contact her via email at ncolborn@iusb.edu
