	Though a faculty member will be engaged as your instructor, online courses require students to be especially conscientious and responsible about completing assignments and staying on track. Online courses are not easier than residential courses and require just as much time and effort from students.

Above class meets first eight weeks only In this course, students will begin to explore the personal, institutional, political, and cultural forces that impact the lived experience of being a professional teacher Possible key questions for reflection include: How does self-knowledge help teachers positively shape their professional lives? How does school culture shape the day-to-day life of teachers and how do you identify a school culture that is right for you? How does the current emphasis on standardized testing impact the life of a teacher and how can teachers positively respond to this? What does it mean to be a ^role model^ and what are the challenges and opportunities presented by this social role? What does community mean and how are teachers participants in and facilitators of positive community? Exploration of these questions will occur through student centered, hands-on, and interactive classroom activities Above class will include preparation for the CASA exam. Registration for the CASA exam is included in this course at no additional cost to students

		This class provides an overview of key theories, concepts and methods that have been used to examine learning in relation to intersectional forms of power, oppression, and trauma. In addition to exploring the current status of these key frameworks, an important goal of this course will be to (re)imagine how they might be strengthened in pursuit of robust educational justice. Learning Sciences students may use this to fill theorizing credits
	VT:	CNTEXTLZNG CONCEPTS & METHODS
	31646		01:00 P-03:30 P	M	ED	1235	Neri R	16	7	0
		In this workshop-style class, students will consider where, when and how time-and-place complexities and power dynamics can inform and reinvigorate their chosen conceptual and methodological approaches. Students will be asked to critically reflect upon, anticipate, and respond to methodological challenges related to learners^ life-developmental trajectories and contextual variation (i.e., demographic and geographic diversity; institutional and political affordances and constraints; power dynamics, relations, and formations). Learning Sciences students may use this to fill apprenticeship credits

						Above class entails a completed criminal history background check (BGC) within the last five years, through one of IU's approved BGC systems, to comply with IU's PIC Policy. BGC's are self-pay (cost varies by state and county) and must be initiated via: HTTP://TINYURL.COM/QG92YFK. This requirement may need to be completed prior to the first day of class if it is a special course, summer course or an accelerated course, please initiate this process as soon as possible. If you have already completed an IU-approved background check in the last 5 years for IU employment or through the link above, please advise your instructor and bring a copy of your certification to class.

		Above class meets on Wednesdays, time TBA, once every three weeks, starting the first week of classes.
		This is a colloquium open to all interested music students held once every three weeks for three hours (with a break) by Profs. Andrew Mead (Music Theory) and Florence Sitruk (Harp) on the question "what is musical taste?"
		We will discuss debates of the early 18th (Quantz, C.P.E. Bach and Mozart) and 19th Century (Wackenroder, Tieck) on the subject, as well as look closely at philosopher Jacques Derrida in the 20th century and his essays on political correctness. We will follow the question "does political correctness influence our judgment on taste?" All these are vital questions for musicians interpreting scores of composers. We will have guest speakers and expect a vivid round of discussions.

							Max	Avl	W/L

This is a colloquium open to all interested music students held once every three weeks for three hours (with a break) by Profs. Andrew Mead (Music Theory) and Florence Sitruk (Harp) on the question "what is musical taste?"
We will discuss debates of the early 18th (Quantz, C.P.E. Bach and Mozart) and 19th Century (Wackenroder, Tieck) on the subject, as well as look closely at philosopher Jacques Derrida in the 20th century and his essays on political correctness. We will follow the question "does political correctness influence our judgment on taste?" All these are vital questions for musicians interpreting scores of composers. We will have guest speakers and expect a vivid round of discussions.

		F 450 : Students in the above class should be aware that a flexible schedule is required when scheduling coachings with their faculty coach. Students must attend the Chamber Music course meeting held in the first week of classes to find out important information regarding group sign-up and placement auditions. Time and location of the meetings will be announced to enrolled students and will be posted on the chamber music website at HTTP://TINYURL.COM/NQWQRQM. All members of the group must be enrolled in MUS-F450 or F550, unless making up an incomplete. Students must obtain the permission and signature of a faculty coach for their group and receive seven coachings, performing at least once in a public setting. Groups that are unable to find a chamber coach will be assigned to a faculty member by the Head of Chamber Music. Visit the above chamber music website for further details on guidelines and required paperwork or email chmusic@indiana.edu with questions.
