Cassandra Allard

Louisville, KY

Neuroscience (honors), Psychology (honors)

Research technician at the Kentucky Spinal Cord Injury Research Center at the University of Louisville investigating vascular mechanisms involved with spinal cord injury

The research grant from the Hutton Honors College permitted me to complete my research at IU involving cannabinoid receptor-1 in the uterus. I am grateful to the HHC's generosity. The endless opportunities offered by the HHC were remarkable and I will remember my time at IU with joy.

Jason Allen

Georgetown, IN

Accounting, Finance (Kelly honors), General Honors Notation

Attending law school in Fall

Cultural requirements resulted in me seeing a lot of fascinating things at IU I would have otherwise missed

Carlo Angiuli

Wilmette, IL

Mathematics (honors), Computer Science (honors)

Ph.D. in Computer Science at Carnegie Mellon University.

Kristen Antony

Naperville, IL

Marketing, International Business, General Honors Notation

Beginning a career in Marketing in the Chicago Area

The honors discussion classes I took were some of the best classes I have taken at Indiana University. They were interesting and allowed me to interact with many smart and diverse honors students.

Kristin Archer

St. Louis, MO

Finance, Accounting, and International Business (Kelley honors)

Investment banking analyst at Deutsche Bank Securities in New York City.

All four years I was involved in the Hutton Honors Council Association. This organization helped me build friendships with students in all majors and develop my leadership skills.

Kelly Avery

Jeffersonville, IN

Marketing, Operations Management
Account Manager at CDW in Chicago, IL

Choosing to attend Indiana University was the best decision I have ever made in my life. I've made great friends and memories, as well as receiving an outstanding education. The HHC allowed me to take courses that had smaller class sizes and better professors who could devote more individual attention to their students. I was a mentor in the HHC Freshman Mentoring Program and really enjoyed helping a fellow student survive their first year of college. I am extremely grateful for everything that Indiana University, the Kelley School of Business, and the Hutton Honors College has done for me.

Stephanie Barath

Highland, IN Public Health (honors)

Interning at the Cancer Research Foundation in NW Indiana. Attending graduate school in Fall 2012 to pursue a Masters of Public Health degree.

Evan Beckner

Carmel, IN
Finance

Moving to Omaha, Nebraska to become a commodities trader for Green Plains Renewable Energy, an ethanol company.

Thanks to the Hutton Honors College, I was financially supported to make the two best decisions of my life. With the IEP grant I was able to travel and study in India and Copenhagen, Denmark. These two experiences were by far the best and most memorable in school, and have forever positively affected my career path and life.

Elizabeth Bercovitz

Indianapolis, IN
Biology, Liberal Arts Management Program (LAMP), General Honors Notation

Teaching math at Herron High School (an Indianapolis charter school) as a Teach For America 2011 corps member

I lived in the HRC in Forest during my freshman and sophomore years and had a great experience. In fact, I still live with two of the girls I met on my floor. I have also been actively involved in the Hutton Honors Council Association for four years, currently serving as the Associate Director. This has by far been one of my favorite and most-memorable extracurricular activities, and I have had the opportunity to plan and attend a wide variety of interesting events and meet extremely intelligent and wonderful honors students.

Rebecca Birzer

Leawood, KS
Finance, Accounting (Kelley honors), General Honors Notation

Moving to NYC to work as an investment banking analyst for Bank of America Merrill Lynch.

The opportunities that HHC offered me were unparalleled. The Hutton courses were interesting and unique. I feel very lucky to have been a part of this college.

Gregory Ryan Brilles

Spencer, IN American Studies

Volunteering with Americorps before pursuing a PhD and career in academia.

Joe Buser

Carmel, IN

Finance (honors), Mathematics, Economics

Investment Banking Analyst for UBS in New York

The HHC has impacted me on a personal level from day one on this campus. Freshman year, I had the opportunity to live on one of the honors floors within Teter. Through that experience, I met many people like myself, several of whom are some of my best friends to this day. Through the HHC, I also took on one of my first campus leadership positions as Treasurer of the Honors Student Association. Every year I've taken a variety of honors classes within my majors. Overall, the HHC has contributed to an unbelievable college experience and I'm grateful to have had the opportunity to be a part of it.

Nicholas Bussberg

Goshen, IN

Biology, General Honors Notation

Attending graduate school at the IU School of Public and Environmental

Affairs studying environmental science, focusing on marine conservation

I enjoyed meeting people with many different backgrounds and view points.

It helped me develop my beliefs by learning about what others believed.

Matthew Capone

Bassoon Performance

Plans to pursue a Performer Diploma at the Jacobs School of Music next year.

Alice Chen

Carmel, IN

Biology

Attending IU Medical School at Indianapolis

Joshua Cisney

Berne, IN

Physics, Math

Taking a year off to volunteer with a disaster relief organization before attending graduate school in Energy and Environmental Sciences

I have loved my experience in the Hutton Honors College. I have met and had lunch with some of the most brilliant artists and thinkers of our day, received grants to volunteer in inner-city neighborhoods, and taken classes that challenged me in so many ways.

Hannah Cohen

(missing)

Religious Studies (honors), General Honors Notation

AmeriCorps placed position in Washington, D.C. with Empowered Women

International as Development Associate

Hannah Marie Cohen

Carrie Coon

Bartlett, IL

Biology

Volunteering at a WWOOF farm (world-wide opportunities on organic farms) and working as nursing assistant. Applying to physician assistant masters program next spring

I'm extremely glad that I lived on an HRC floor in Forest because the people I met are still some of my closest friends. The HHC also gave me a generous scholarship of $2000 to study abroad in Salamanca, Spain for 6 weeks during the summer after my Sophomore year. I had an amazing experience at the University of Salamanca and traveling around Spain and to Portugal.

Desiree Cossyleon

Munster, IN

Neuroscience (honors), Spanish

Teach For America corps member in Houston, TX

My favorite aspect of the honors college was the chance to meet all the visiting speaker at the discussion suppers. Every discussion brought new topics to my attention and highlighted the diversity in interests among the HHC students.

Sammy Curto

Findlay, OH

Finance, Information and Process Management (Kelley honors)

Moving to Minneapolis, MN in July to begin work for KPMG as an associate in the IT advisory department.

I lived on the first-ever Briscoe honors residential floor as a freshman and had an amazing experience. All forty of us became so close, and I appreciate how close we became even more after making other friends who don't have many great memories of their floor.

Sam Dayton

Indianapolis, IN

English, Mathematics, Economics, Liberal Arts and Management (LAMP), General Honors Notation

Attending Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis in the Fall

I really enjoyed the honors classes I took for the Hutton Honors College. During my first class at IU, Honors Calculus II, I met one of my best friends. Steve Conrad (Professor of Law for H204: How Law Matters and Our "Original" Culture Wars) served as a mentor for me as I navigated the law school admissions process.

Jennifer DeVito

Granger, IN

Finance, International Business, Legal Studies (Kelley honors)

Financial Analyst at Intel Corporation in California in September 2011

Laura Engelhardt

Lawrenceburg, IN

Psychology (honors), Spanish, General Honors Notation

Lab manager at Columbia University, working on cognitive development

As a freshman who was very intimidated by large classes, I was pleasantly surprised to find that HON courses maxed out at 25 students or so. The smaller class size made both discussion and socializing much easier. I am now close friends with other honors students that I wouldn't have met if not for HON classes...thank you, Hutton! The classes themselves were always interesting, as the professors took genuine interest in their students' ideas and suggestions.

Alyssa Faughn

Evansville, IN

Biology, General Honors Notation

Studying medicine at the Florida International University Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine in Miami, FL.

My freshman year, I lived in the Forest HRC. The friends that I made there have been some of the best people I have met at IU. I have also been involved in the Honors Student Organization since my freshman year. Through HSO, I have really enjoyed working with Assistant Dean Lynn Cochran, who goes above and beyond her role as the group's advisor to help the students in the Honors College. I have also been involved in creating the Hutton Honors Funding Board. I am incredibly thankful for the opportunity to start such an influential fund for Honors College students. The HHC does an amazing job of taking students' ideas and running with them to produce outstanding results. Lastly, my honors classes have been some of my favorites at IU, especially those with Professors Weiner and Cecil.

Lillian Feldman-Hill

Columbus, OH

Telecommunications

Moving to LA for film and video game production

My college experience would NOT be the same without honors sections. They helped me excel and reach my full potential.

Rachel Fickenscher

Fort Wayne, IN

Nursing (honors)

Get a full-time Registered Nurse position at a hospital in either Cincinnati or somewhere in Indiana, preferably on a pediatric or critical-care unit or in the Emergency Department.

I really loved living in the Forest Honors Residential Community my freshman and sophomore years. I made a lot of great friends that way, and I loved all of the fun activities we took part in during the year (camping, a Chicago trip, etc.). It made my time at IU that much better!

Aaron Fogle

Indianapolis, IN

Business Economics, Public Policy Analysis (Kelley honors), General Honors Notation

Investment Banking Analyst at Citigroup in New York City

The Hutton Grants were incredibly helpful in helping me fund my college education.

Melissa Frye

Chesterton, IN

Public Policy Analysis (Kelley honors)

Joining the Higher Education practice at Huron Consulting Group in Chicago

in August 2011

I found the constant access to events with interesting speakers, professors, and professionals to be one of the valuable parts of my HHC experience. I learned so much on a such a broad range of topics through these workshops, dinners, and events.

Elizabeth Garrett

Neuroscience, General Honors Notation

Moving to Texas for optometry school

Elizabeth Harlan

Oxford, OH

Public Health, English (creative writing)

Internship at Planned Parenthood, eventual MS in Public Health

The grants and scholarships were very good and very helpful for study abroad. I enjoyed the Hutton Honors College courses I took part in, and found some wonderful people that way. The professors were excellent.

Betsy Head

Bloomington, IN

Marketing, International Business (honors)

Assistant Brand Manager for Unilever in New Jersey

I am so grateful for the Hutton IEP grants which allowed me to study abroad in Ghana and Chile (in addition to traveling to India and Spain on two other programs). The honors courses that I took at IU were some of the best in the curriculum, and I appreciate the opportunity to be a part of this program.

Kali Hopkins

Loogootee, IN

Neuroscience, Chemistry, General Honors Notation

Attending IU School of Medicine

Heidi Horton

Returning to Cincinnati to work as an Assistant Account Executive at GyroHSR, an international integrated marketing agency

During the last four years, I have greatly enjoyed the wonderful opportunities and academic experiences that Indiana University has given me. Additionally, the classes that I have taken through the HHC are among my favorite that I have taken at IU!

Bethany Keller

Hagerstown, IN

Psychology (honors), General Honors Notation

Attending the University of Louisville for their doctoral program in Counseling Psychology

Being part of the HHC allowed me the opportunity to take some very unique classes that I may not have otherwise signed up for. I also loved all of the incredible activities the HHC offered, including attending performances at the MAC with behind-the-scenes sneak peaks.

Nathaniel Kenninger

Brownsburg, IN

Legal Studies (Kelley honors), Spanish, Economics, General Honors Notation

Associate Consultant at Bain & Company, a strategy consulting firm, in Chicago

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to Indiana University and especially the Huttons Honors College for making my collegiate experience so stimulating and productive. I thoroughly enjoyed attending the Hutton speaker series and meeting all of the wonderful people at Hutton. I look forward to staying connected with IU and Hutton in the future.

Kent Kinzer

Robbie Kleinberg

Boca Raton, FL

Music Education, General Honors Notation

Moving to Brooklyn, NY to pursue music performance opportunities in contemporary music

All of the people who ended up leading the HHC when i graduated were on my floor freshman year on the Honors floor of Forest. They are really great people and it was awesome to start my IU career off by meeting them as my first friends.

Claire Kruschke

Bloomington, IN

Sociology (honors), Liberal Arts and Management Program (LAMP),
General Honors Notation

Planning to work and travel overseas through the Peace Corps before returning to the United States for graduate school.

Angela Kuo

Terre Haute, IN

Biology

Attending IU School of Medicine in the fall.

It was nice to be able to automatically register for Honors courses. Many of the departmental honors classes had smaller class sizes, which improved the experience.

Adrian Kuzel

Noblesville, IN

Entrepreneurship, Operations Management

Setting up businesses with his father.

I enjoyed both the honors course that I was offered through the HHC and the honors courses I was able to take in Kelley because of my involvement with the HHC.

Jennifer Laser

Business Marketing and Operations

I will work as an Analyst for The Nielsen Company in Cincinnati, Ohio

Jessica Lehfeltd

Batesville, IN

Accounting, Operations Management

Summer internship at Hillenbrand, Inc, before returning to IU for an MS in Information Systems

I loved being a member of the honors college...especially the host program and HRC. I began my college career living on an honors floor in Teter and ended my college career in the same room as the RA for that floor. I also have remained close friends with many of the people I met during my first year on that honors floor. Finally, I really enjoyed working with the host program and helping in its development. I have truly had a positive experience at IU thanks in part to my involvement with the honors college.

Nicholas Leish

Cincinnati, OH

Finance (Kelley honors), General Honors Notation

Investment banking analyst at Bank of America Merrill Lynch in New York, NY.

My most memorable HHC experience was Richard Cecil's Reading & Writing Contemporary Poetry class. I really appreciated the open discussion format of the class, hearing other's poems read aloud, and of course Professor Cecil's commentary. This class helped me expand my education outside of the walls of Kelley, and for that I am extremely grateful.

Jaclyn Milici

Branford, CT

Biology, General Honors Notation

Medical school at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine

The opportunity to live in the Teter Honors Community my freshman year made my college experience so much richer. I have made so many life long friends because of living in the honors community.

Alexandra Mims

Memphis, TN

Biochemistry (honors)

Ph.D. program in Cellular and Molecular Medicine at Johns Hopkins

My college experience was enriched by the HHC through the Briscoe Honors floor, involvement in the HHCA, and a summer research grant.

Brianna Mueller

Deerfield, IL

Finance, International Business (Kelley honors)

Working as a financial analyst at Hospira Inc, a pharmaceutical company in Lake Forest, IL

I've had a great experience as the fund-raising chair and former membership chair in the Honors Student Organization (HSO) beginning my sophomore year.

Jaimie Murdock

Murray, KY

Computer Science (honors), Cognitive Science

Continuing as a research assistant at IU, and eventually pursuing a PhD in Computer Science

The HHC's funding opportunities made it possible for me to spend three amazing summers in Bloomington pursuing research, resulting in 5 publications by the time I graduated. I am eternally grateful for the doors this has opened.

Leah Myhre

Crawfordsville, IN

Political Science, Spanish, General Honors Notation

Attending law school in the fall at Chapman University School of Law in Orange, California

Thanks to the scholarships I received from the Hutton Honors College, I was able to augment my collegiate experience with a semester abroad in Madrid, Spain. It's been an amazing four years and I appreciate all of the wonderful support and guidance from the HHC!

Kevin O'Brien

Marion, IN

Hebron, IN
Exercise Science (honors)
Doctorate of Physical Therapy from IUPUI

Ashley Oswald

St. Louis, MO
Finance, Entrepreneurship
Moving to St. Louis to work as an assistant plant finance manager for Proctor and Gamble.

I have really enjoyed my time with the Honors College especially through the HHCA and the Greek Honors Council. One of my favorite classes at IU was a poetry class offered exclusively to honors students. I would like to give a special thanks to Lynn Cochran, the assistant dean of the HHC, for all her help and guidance throughout my four years at IU.

Luke Pacold

Elmhurst, IL
Economics, Classical Studies (Latin), Liberal Arts and Management Program (LAMP), General Honors Notation
This July I will start as an investment banking analyst with BMO Capital Markets in Chicago. Before then I hope to climb Mount Kilimanjaro and spend time with family.

I have greatly enjoyed the events hosted by the HHC and Wells Scholars Program. Highlights include Roger Penrose's discussion of physics and puzzles, Paul Sherman's lecture on Darwinian Gastronomy, Michael Chabon's discourse on writing and his screenplay for John Carter of Mars, and John Brown's tour of the IU Art Museum.

Christi Perkins

Whiteland, Indiana
Biochemistry (honors)
Ph.D. in bioengineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology
The HHC provides numerous courses that allow students from many different majors to come together and share ideas in a truly interdisciplinary environment.

Abigail Pratt

Bloomington, IN
Music Education
Teaching middle school and/or high school orchestra in public schools
I enjoyed taking small honors classes and seminars through the HHC. My favorite honors class was with Professor James Andrews over presidential rhetoric. I also enjoyed attending shows at the IU Auditorium and the Musical Arts Center with HHC groups. My favorite of those was the Ladysmith Black Mambazo concert in 2009. Thank you for all the extra opportunities the HHC offered!

Danielle Kay Riendeau

Barrington, IL
Studio Art, Spanish, General Honors Notation
Full-time work at Metropolitan Printing in Bloomington, while continuing freelance photography and graphic design work.
I made a great number of lasting friends through my honors classes. The people I've met are incredibly interesting, intelligent and come from all walks of life; I love that the honors college offers such diversity. The honors classes that were mainly discussion-based opened my eyes up to new ways to think about the world in terms of politics, history, and philosophy, that I would not have experienced in any other class.

Sarah Robinson

The grants I received were very helpful in funding my education and my abroad experience.

Andrew Schankerman

Carmel, IN

Finance, International Business (Kelley honors), General Honors Notation

Working in Treasury and Securities Services at JP Morgan in New York City

Hutton classes always caused me to think outside-the-box and were a welcome break from my business courses

Erik Schultz

Downers Grove, IL

Biology, General Honors Notation

Medical School at the West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine

Classes were rigorous but rewarding. Got very individual attention due to small class sizes. Helped me to realize my dream to travel and volunteer in Africa. Consistently available for help with class scheduling.

Brogan Schutz

North Manchester, IN

Biology, General Honors Notation

Attending IU School of Medicine

Some of my favorite college classes were my HHC courses. They gave me a mental break from science, and the class dynamic was always really neat by the end of the semester. I enjoyed making connections with the professors, who were always extremely engaging individuals. I think the Honors Notation program is a great one and am glad I was able to take advantage of it during my time here at IU.

Natalie Sedia

Schererville, IN

Accounting (honors), General Honors Notation
