5:30-7 PM

Hoosier Hills Food Bank

A volunteer project will take place at the Hoosier Hills Food Bank on Wed., Nov. 30, involving repacking food to help with the rush of the holidays. PSA will have a meeting on Wed., Nov. 9 at 7 PM (location TBA), with plans to invite a speaker from campus or the community to talk about the current theme. If you have any suggestions for someone you think would be interesting, please email iupsa@indiana.edu.

PACE students who are currently involved in internships or other community engagement activities: please send stories/photos from your experience to pace@indiana.edu so that we can share them in future newsletters!

PACE COMMUNITY DELIBERATION PROJECT

PACE will take part in the Kettering Foundation's Joint Learning Exchange for 2012. PACE is developing for this exchange a new project based on the Issues Forum model from the Kettering Foundation National Issues Forum, <http://www.nifi.org/>.

The PACE Community Deliberation Project will work with students and local groups to facilitate democratic deliberation on issues of interest to Bloomington and Monroe County. On Sat., Feb. 18, 2012, students will gather to deliberate privacy, freedom, and security on the internet. All IUB students are invited to participate and may register for spring PACE-C 400 Issues Forum for 1 credit hour.

Following the campus forum, some PACE students will begin to work with local groups to put together Issues Books and facilitate deliberation on topics of interest chosen by the community. Joelene Bergonzi, PACE Associate Director, and Lisa-Marie Napoli, adjunct faculty with PACE, will co-lead the Project and also participate in the learning exchange with the Kettering Foundation.

Joint learning exchanges focus on solving particular problems that participants have a stake in addressing, even if they are not from research institutions (and most are not). Exposure to ideas, reflection on experiences and practices, insights from past exchanges and other Kettering research will be part of the joint learning initiative. Joelene and Lisa-Marie will share the experiences of building the PACE Community Deliberation Project with participating faculty who are establishing centers for public life at colleges and universities across the US.

The PACE Community Deliberation Project opens another fruitful way for our students to be engaged beyond campus while contributing to practicing democracy.

There is a NEW feature for spring registration: The course descriptions link is no longer being used at the Registrar's complete listing of courses offered for spring. This full listing, though, is still the best way to get an overview of what is being offered for the semester:

<http://registrar.indiana.edu/scheduleoclasses/prl/soc4122/index.html>

You will now be able to see a course description for any class through the Class Search in OneStart or when you are searching to add courses to your Enrollment Shopping Cart (which you can do before you register). Click on the DETAILS link of your search results to see the description.

You can see the classes offered in spring that count for PACE on the PACE homepage: Spring 2012 courses for the PACE certificate <http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/Spr2012%20PACE%20courses.pdf> The descriptions of PACE courses follow the list. Joelene is also consulting with students now about their curriculum in order to fit in different priorities with the PACE certificate. Please call 856-1747 to reserve a time to meet.
