Tours of the winery, wine-tasting, and cheese-tasting will all be available for your enjoyment along with the company of your fellow wine & cheese-loving librarians. Bring a friend - maybe someone who would be interested in either joining InULA or learning about our scholarships and professional funding opportunities. Information and membership forms will be available for you to peruse as you munch, sip, and chat!

Please be sure to RSVP to Julie Hardesty (jlhardes@indiana.edu) if you plan to attend and if you plan to bring a guest. We need to know how big to make the cheese platter!
