1. FACULTY/STAFF NEWS

Dawn Hornbeck, a former employee at Indiana University Libraries for 16 years, died Saturday, February 1, in the Bloomington Hospital. She had lived with diabetes since childhood.

Ms. Hornbeck began her I.U. library work in 1977 under the supervision of Vivian Whaley in the "file area" of the Circulation Department. In December, 1985, she transferred to the Journalism Library as the Branch Manager. She resigned her position in 1993 and returned to Hartwick, New York, her home town.

In 1990 she received the Library Staff Employee Award, given by the I.U. Library Support Staff Organization.

Ms. Hornbeck is one of the finest persons with whom I have worked. She had a deep commitment to library service, and she was a skillful communicator with disgruntled patrons and her student employees.

A memorial service in Bloomington will be announced at a later time.

Her partner, Daryl Shadrick, and her son, Alden Hornbeck Shadrick, reside at 700 N. Washington St., Bloomington, Indiana 47401.

--Frances Wilhoit, Head, Journalism Library

David Lasocki (Music Library, IUB) gave a lecture entitled "Authentic Early Music?" to the Friends of the Library at Tulane University, New Orleans, on February 2nd.

David Fenske, Michael Fling, David Lasocki, Constance Mayer, Ralph Papakhian, and Sue Stancu (Music Library, IUB) all attended the Music Library Association annual meeting in New Orleans, January 29th-February 1st.

Effective January 31, Deanna Nichols accepted the Library Services Associate I (Senior Manuscript Assistant) position in the Lilly Library. Prior to coming to IU, Deanna was Associate Librarian at the Los Angeles Times. She received her MLS from the University of Arizona.

2. NOVELS IN WOODCUTS: AN EXHIBIT

THE SILENT SHOUT:

Frans Masereel, Lynd Ward and the Novel in Woodcuts

An exhibit of "novels in woodcuts" from the 1920s through 1950s, will run from Feb. 1-Feb. 28, 1997 at the Fine Arts Library of Indiana University in Bloomington, IN. It will then move to the Lobby of the Main Library, where it will be available for viewing from March 1-31, 1997. 26 examples of the genre from this period will be on display, including works by Frans Masereel, Lynd Ward, Otto Nueckel, Giacomo Patri and others. A 51-page catalogue of the exhibit, including an extensive overview of the genre, will be available for $10.00 (includes postage). Prepaid only, please--no invoicing. Checks should be made out to "The Indiana University Foundation" and sent to: Perry Willett, Main Library Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405. Lenders to the exhibit are: University of California, Los Angeles, Special Collections Department, Edward Ripp, Bookseller, and Perry Willett.

For more information, please contact Perry Willett at (812-855-1891) or pwillett@indiana.edu

3. NEWS FROM IUPUI...

Exhibits - The exhibit "Famous Signatures" is now on display in the Ruth Lilly Special Collections and Archives, IUPUI University Library, through the end of February. The items in this exhibit, drawn from collections held by the archives and from the private collection of Steven Schmidt, Access Services Team Leader, feature the signatures of such individuals as Martin Luther King, Jr., Eleanor Roosevelt, Dan Quayle, John Keenedy, and Kurt Vonnegut, Jr. The exhibit may be viewed during the archives' regular (newly extended) hours of operation (Monday, Thursday and Friday , 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Tuesday-Wednesday 8 a.m. - 8 p.m. and Saturday, 8 a.m. - 12 p.m. (noon).

Project Completion - The Cataloging Team of IUPUI University Library, wishes to announce that, as of January 31, 1997, the Herron collection has been retrospectively converted. Special thanks to team members, Pat McWilliams, Jan Canganelli, Claire Dunigan, and Wil Graham for a job well done. Thanks also, to the other team members who took up the slack while efforts were concentrated on Herron. Thanks to the Herron team, especially Sonja Staum-Kuniej, Jennifer Hehman, and Sharon Pratt. As Joe Harmon, Cataloging Team Leader, expressed, "Catalogers would descend like locusts, demanding this and than, and leaving behind hundred of books needing reshelving. The Herron team's patience hard work and good humor was much appreciated. (anyone looking for a good card catalog should contact Sonja)."

4. BLFC PANEL DISCUSSION VIDEOTAPED

The BLFC, Continuing Education Committee recently held a panel discussion on the Bloomington campus on the topic: "Integrating the Digital Library; Combining Electronic and Traditional Resources". Although personnel from every campus was invited, we realize that it was not possible for many from other campuses to attend. Provision was made to videotape the panel and provide a copy for each of the other campuses. The tapes will be sent out this week to the attention of the campus library directors.

--Ruth Davison, Chair, BLFC/CEC

7. INDIANA SLA MEETING IN BLOOMINGTON

Tour of the IU Music Library AND Program on Continuing Education

WHO: All are invited!

TOPIC: Continuing Education: WhatAEs Next?

IU SLIS Professor Deborah Shaw, Assistant Professor Carol Hert and Assistant Professor Howard Rosenbaum will speak to us about continuing education. Questions that will be addressed include: What knowledge and skills do SLIS students and experienced information professionals need to stay at the top of our information field? What are some of the continuing education opportunities that are currently available to us? What types of continuing education are needed but are not being offered?

WHEN: February 27, 1997 (Thursday)

3:30- 5:00pm Board meeting

5:00- 6:00pm Social Time / Tours of IU Cook Music Library

6:00- 7:00pm Dinner / Update of SLA conferences

7:00- 8:30pm Program on Continuing Education: WhatAEs Next?

WHERE: Indiana University School of Music, Bloomington, IN. The meeting will take place at 200 S. Jordan St. in the Indiana University School of Music building, room 350. This building is located at the corner of 3rd St. and Jordan St. (in the former School of Education building). Visitor parking is available in the parking structure on Jordan Ave... just south of 7th St.

Our audience is the IU Bloomington faculty, librarians in the fifteen branch libraries and the Main Library, as well as donors who have made gifts to the libraries.

The purpose of our newsletter is to publicize upcoming events and important gifts, spotlight interesting people and departments, report on great things happening in the development of collections and technology, and to provide a forum for readers to add things of timely and special interest.

Please send us a brief description of your ideas, and we will choose the story which best fits in scope and content.

Anything related to the IU Bloomington Libraries will be considered, including: history, policies, conservation and preservation, special collections, issues related to the Internet and new technology, literacy, or personal anecdotes.

For more information please contact Margaret Parks at e-mail: maparks, or phone 855-3403.
