InULA Arts and Crafts Adventure

The InULA Programs and Social Committee would like to invite you to join us for an Arts and Crafts adventure! We will be heading out to the T.C. Steele Homestead for a look at their current exhibit and a closer look at the rare books from the Arts and Crafts Movement in the exhibit.

Arts & Crafts Moments: Simplicity in Design Tour

Date: Sunday, March 27, 2011

Time: 2:00p-3:30p*

Place: T.C. Steele State Historic Site (Directions)

Cost: $3.50

RSVP: Please visit http://www.iidc.indiana.edu/cedir/invitation/inula.html

*People wishing to car pool from Bloomington should meet at the Wells Library at 1:15p in the lobby.

Program: The Arts & Crafts Movement focused on handcrafted objects that created a close relationship between literature and the visual arts, which came to Indiana in the 1890s. There will be three rotations of this exhibit:

First rotation: Nov. 2, 2010-April 30, 2011 The first rotation of Arts and Crafts Moments features artifacts from the T.C. Steele collection not typically seen by the public, including pottery, metal work, graphic arts, furniture and architectural elements.

Our tour will focus on the rare books of this exhibit.

2011 Librarians' Day Proposals Due

You are invited to submit a presentation proposal for the 2011 Librarians' Day to be held Friday, June 10, 2011 at IUPUI in Indianapolis.

The theme for this year's event is "The IU Libraries: A Framework of Excellence". The IU Libraries were specifically mentioned within President Michael McRobbie's Principles of Excellence, which the President introduced in his 2010 State of the University Address. This year's Librarians' Day program will focus on the role of the IU Libraries within the framework of scholarly research and learning, innovation, and the Libraries' role in achieving this vision of Excellence. More information on the Principles of Excellence can be found here: http://www.indiana.edu/~pres/vision/principles-of-excellence/index.shtml

IU Librarians have a lot to be proud of and Librarians' Day is a great place for you to showcase your accomplishments. Opportunities will be available for breakout sessions and to lead round table discussions. Each of these sessions will be 40 minutes in length. There will also be an opportunity to present a poster during the morning check in period.

To submit a proposal for consideration, please send the following information to Lora K. Baldwin, mcclell@indiana.edu:

Type of presentation: Poster, Breakout Session or Round Table
Title
Brief Description (100-300 words) of the proposed presentation
Full name(s) of presenter(s) as you would like them to appear along with campus affiliation
Equipment needs

Proposals are due Monday, April 18, 2011.
