STAFF NEWS

**Staff Updates, IUB*

Effective March 3, 2003, Doug McKinney will move from the position of Assistant to the Dean to focus primarily on statistical data analysis and assessment for the Libraries. His new title will be Statistical Data and Assessment Analyst. Doug's familiarity with the Libraries and his work with the Libraries budget requests, extensive reporting and collection of data for the Libraries and for all the campuses state-wide have provided him with the knowledge and expertise needed to assist in building an assessment infrastructure that will allow us to respond effectively to statistics and assessment needs. Due to the reorganization of responsibilities, we will post the Assistant to the Dean position. The posting will be released within the next week or so and the position will remain open until filled.

**Forum on Progress of the Libraries Web Site, IUB*

Join Us for a Progress Report on the Libraries' Web Site

You are invited to a forum to update you on the Libraries' Website work, on Wednesday, March 12, from 1:30 to 3:00, and repeated on Thursday, March 13, from 3:30 to 5:00.

Both sessions will be held in room E174.

The forum will be in the form of a progress report, with the majority of time allotted to a report from the Usability Team (Moirra Smith), and with additional reports on plans for the special templates for Collections/ Departments/ Libraries (Bob Noel), and on the new Content Manager, the search engine and other planned projects (Doug Ryner).

All staff with an interest in the Libraries' web pages are encouraged to attend. The presentation will include demonstrations of actual usability tests and information on opportunities to help with this important work.
