Translations

El Nio de la Mare (The Son of Mary) — arr. Jackie O'Neill

What shall we give to the Son of the Virgin?
What can we give that the Babe will enjoy?
First, we shall give Him a tray full of raisins,
Then we shall offer sweet figs to the Boy.
First, we shall give Him a tray full of raisins,
Then we shall offer sweet figs to the Boy.

What shall we give the Beloved of Mary?
What can we give to her beautiful Child?
Raisins and olives and nutmeats and honey,
Candy and figs and some cheese that is mild.
Raisins and olives and nutmeats and honey,
Candy and figs and some cheese that is mild.

What shall we do if the figs are not ripened?
What shall we do if the figs are still green?
We shall not fret; if they're not ripe for Easter,
On a Palm Sunday, ripe figs will be seen.
We shall not fret, if they're not ripe for Easter,
On a Palm Sunday, ripe figs will be seen.

"Quia respexit" — J.S. Bach
from Magnificat in D major, BWV 243

For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden
Behold! From henceforth I shall be called blessed by...(all generations)

"Quia fecit mihi magna" — J.S. Bach
from Magnificat in D Major BWV 243

For he to me is mighty who has done great things and holy is his name.

R&R Series

Ruthmere and the Ernestine M. Raclin School of the Arts of Indiana University South Bend have partnered to bring leading performing arts talent to Elkhart area high school students and the general public. Faculty and student performances will follow the academic calendar starting in September. A mid-day performance will be offered to Elkhart area high school and college students free of charge (venues will rotate from school to school). An evening performance including a reception with light refreshments is planned for 7 pm on R&R event dates. Admission to the concerts is available to the general public admission for $10 per person, and Ruthmere members for $5 per person. IU South Bend students, faculty, and staff, as well as Ruthmere Bronze Patron members and higher, admitted for free. Seating is limited, reservations strongly encouraged.
Call 574-264-0330 ext. 104 for reservations.
