	Stars and Bars: Pop Culture and Prison Although they stand at the opposite end of political spectra in many ways, popular culture and prison are two undeniably quintessentially ^American^ phenomena. This introductory American Studies course examines the rise of mass incarceration since World War II, focusing on popular constructions in film, TV, and communications (news) media. Students will be introduced to American studies methods of popular cultural interpretation and to some brief histories and activist framings of prisons and punishment.

							Though a faculty member will be engaged as your instructor, online courses require students to be especially conscientious and responsible about completing assignments and staying on track. Online courses are not easier than residential courses and require just as much time and effort from students. Online participation is required the first week of class. Students may not add the class after Week 1 - no exceptions. Students must have a computer with a working microphone and webcam. A private location and reliable internet connection with a broadband speed of at least 5 mbps is required for quizzes and exams. This class requires a Distance Education Course Fee. Current rates are available at http://go.iu.edu/BLfees

	Above class meets second eight weeks only In this course, students will begin to explore the personal, institutional, political, and cultural forces that impact the lived experience of being a professional teacher Possible key questions for reflection include: How does self-knowledge help teachers positively shape their professional lives? How does school culture shape the day-to-day life of teachers and how do you identify a school culture that is right for you? How does the current emphasis on standardized testing impact the life of a teacher and how can teachers positively respond to this? What does it mean to be a "role model" and what are the challenges and opportunities presented by this social role? What does community mean and how are teachers participants in and facilitators of positive community? Exploration of these questions will occur through student centered, hands-on, and interactive classroom activities

		Class includes visits to facilities that require a completed criminal history background check (BGC) within the last six months. BGC's are self-pay (cost varies by state and county) and can be initiated via HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/BGCIU-AHS or by another facility-approved vendor. This requirement must be completed by April 1. If you completed an IU-approved BGC in the last six months for IU employment or as a student in an IU PIC program, please advise your instructor and bring a copy of your certification to class.

		Above class meets on Wednesdays, time TBA, once every three weeks, starting the first week of classes.
		This is a colloquium open to all interested music students held once every three weeks for three hours (with a break) by Profs. Andrew Mead (Music Theory) and Florence Sitruk (Harp) on the question "what is musical taste?"
		We will discuss debates of the early 18th (Quantz, C.P.E. Bach and Mozart) and 19th Century (Wackenroder, Tieck) on the subject, as well as look closely at philosopher Jacques Derrida in the 20th century and his essays on political correctness. We will follow the question "does political correctness influence our judgment on taste?" All these are vital questions for musicians interpreting scores of composers. We will have guest speakers and expect a vivid round of discussions.

Above class meets on Wednesdays, time TBA, once every three weeks, starting the first week of classes.
This is a colloquium open to all interested music students held once every three weeks for three hours (with a break) by Profs. Andrew Mead (Music Theory) and Florence Sitruk (Harp) on the question "what is musical taste?"
We will discuss debates of the early 18th (Quantz, C.P.E. Bach and Mozart) and 19th Century (Wackenroder, Tieck) on the subject, as well as look closely at philosopher Jacques Derrida in the 20th century and his essays on political correctness. We will follow the question "does political correctness influence our judgment on taste?" All these are vital questions for musicians interpreting scores of composers. We will have guest speakers and expect a vivid round of discussions.

MUS-X 70 UNIVERSITY CHORAL ENSEMBLES (2 CR)

X 70 : All choral ensembles meet either MTR 2:30-3:50 PM, or daily 4:00-6:00 PM. Students enrolled in MUS-X 70 must keep these time periods free until receiving an ensemble assignment following choral auditions

Choral assignments for the entire school year are based on auditions held the week before classes in the fall semester. If you did not audition at that time, you must audition on the first day of classes in the spring semester. Please schedule an audition through the Choral Office, dvillanu@indiana.edu. See link on Choral Department website for audition details. If you auditioned in August, you do not need to re-audition in January

For a complete list of choral ensembles, rehearsal dates, and times, please refer to the Choral Department website at http://tinyurl.com/q9w6hkx. This information is also posted outside MA051. There may not be openings in all ensembles in the spring semester if you did not audition in August
