There is a fabulous new blog from the IUB Libraries Media and Reserves Services! Media Beat will provide information about the multimedia collection in Media and Reserves Services, and give the particulars for on-campus screenings and events. But that's not all! It will also feature movie reviews, editorials, and industry updates. For example, one of the latest entries has a list of new titles available at the library, while another discusses the latest Oscars. Be sure to check it out for yourself!

Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award 2014: Call for Applications

DEADLINE EXTENDED! The Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award deadline has been extended to Friday, March 7. Employees of the IU Libraries system who hold an MLS degree or have equivalent experience are invited to submit applications for the Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award. All IU Libraries staff on all campuses in clerical, technical, and PA positions, and all individuals with librarian appointments are eligible to apply for this award. The White Award has been established to support the career growth of individuals who have chosen librarianship as a profession. Further information about the award, the process, eligibility, criteria, and the application form are available on the web.

The deadline for applications is TODAY, March 7. Please send your information to Julie Ranz, Advancement Associate, jranz@indiana.edu, Wells 234, Bloomington.

The IU Libraries Scholarship and Award Committee will make the award decision and complete notification letters at the beginning of April. Dean Johnson will publicly announce the award recipient's name at the annual Retirement and Recognition Reception in Bloomington in April, and at Librarians' Day, scheduled for June.

The Indiana Online Users Group \(IOLUG\) Program Committee invites you to submit a proposal to present at the Spring 2014 IOLUG program, "Library Road Maps: Patrons in the Driver's Seat" on Friday, May 16 at Indiana Wesleyan University's Indianapolis North campus. Submit your proposal using the online form by NOON, Monday, March 10. Get some inspiration from previous years' sessions on the IOLUG website.

Libraries and librarians are continually evolving as we embrace community and cultural change affecting our resources and services. Have you conducted usability studies to redesign your library's website? Are you redesigning a space in your library based on user feedback? Have you recently implemented patron-driven acquisition? If so, we invite you to submit a proposal for the Spring IOLUG 2014 program! Some suggested topics to consider:

- Patron-driven Acquisition
- Maker Spaces
- Designing Library Websites to Meet User Needs
- Creating New Services or Redesigning Services to Meet User Needs
- User Experience and Usability Studies
- Anthropological and Ethnographic Studies
- Methods for Feedback Gathering
- Self-Service Models
- ...and any other topics that put the library in the hands of the patrons!

Digital Library Brown Bag: March 12

Please join us Wednesday, March 12 for a Digital Library Brown Bag Series presentation by Brianna Marshall. The presentation will be held at the Herman B Wells Library, room E174, from 12:00pm -1:00pm. The presentation will also be broadcasted (see details below).

An Introduction to Using Neatline for Digital Mapping Projects
Brianna Marshall, Digital Library Research Assistant
Digital Collections Services

Neatline, a tool for the open-source Omeka framework that allows users to create digital exhibits with maps and timelines, was created to fit the needs of scholars, librarians, historians, and digital humanists. In this talk, the speaker will share an introduction to Neatline, her experiences using the tool for a mapping project with IU's Digital Collections Services, and suggestions for libraries interested in exploring Neatline themselves.

Presentations will also be broadcast via Adobe Connect. Go to <http://breeze.iu.edu/diglib> to view and listen to the presentation. If you are not a registered user for Connect Meeting/Breeze, select the "Enter as a Guest" option.

You can also follow and contribute to the presentation and discussion on twitter: #dlbb.

The Digital Library Brown Bag series is held most Wednesdays this spring semester. All presentations are in the Herman B Wells Library room E174 from 12:00pm - 1:00pm. The complete schedule, including abstracts, is available here.

To receive a reminder and an abstract for each presentation, send an email to iulist@iulist.indiana.edu with the message body: sub dl-brownbag-I Your Full Name.

The Digital Library Brown Bag Series is part of the Digital Initiatives track of the Scholars' Commons Series. As research initiatives increasingly rely on technology as a significant mode for inquiry, the Digital Initiatives track will address cutting-edge and emerging topics that shape this new scholarly endeavor. The Scholars' Commons Series features a full schedule of events ranging from basic introductions to core research tools, to workshops for dissertation writers, to talks by cutting edge digital scholars. For more information, please click here.

The Metadata Discussion Group meets monthly to discuss metadata issues pertaining to libraries, archives, and museums. The group has no formal membership. Library staff, SOIC faculty and students, and those on campus interested in the topic are welcome to attend.

Join us for a discussion about microdata, Schema.org, and how businesses and libraries are using these web technologies and search engine capabilities to drive traffic to their websites. All are welcome to participate!

DATE: Tuesday, March 25

TIME: 9:30am - 10:30am

PLACE: Wells Library Room 043

TOPIC: The Business of Metadata

MODERATOR: Jennifer Liss with special guest, Rachel Wheeler!

For a list of recommended resources on the topic, please see the full meeting announcement.

Learn more about the Metadata Discussion Group at our blog, or join the group email list by sending the following in the subject line of the message (leave the body of the message blank) to list@list.indiana.edu:

Staff News

Karen Farrell has accepted the South Asian Studies Librarian position. In addition to her Master of Library and Information Science degree from Wayne State University, Karen has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Anthropology from Kalamazoo College and a Master of Arts degree in South Asia Studies from the University of Pennsylvania. Karen is currently employed at Wayne State University and has held positions at the Huntington Learning Center and the University of Pennsylvania. Her background in South Asia Studies has provided Karen with an in-depth knowledge of the needs of faculty and students in the field. She has conducted research in both Sri Lanka and India, and has studied multiple South Asian languages. Her graduate coursework and research covered far-ranging topics, from the symbols of Early Buddhist Stupas to contemporary Bollywood film to the intersection of Said's Orientalism and Indian Feminism. We are very excited for Karen to join us. Please join me in welcoming Karen to the Libraries!
