1 PUBLIC ALLIES CEO PAUL SCHMITZ VISITS IU

Here's a new PACE event: On Thursday, Feb. 21, Paul Schmitz will visit campus to meet with PACE students at 4 p.m. in the IMU Walnut Room for an informal chat before his presentation at City Hall. To think about what you might want to ask Mr. Schmitz, see <http://everyoneleads.org/>. You are invited to join us in the Walnut Room and/or to hear him speak at City Hall, see https://bloomington.in.gov/documents/viewDocument.php?document\_id=7258.

Save the date for Paul Schmitz:

"You're a Leader – You Just Don't Know it!"

You are invited for an evening of inspiration in understanding leadership possibilities within yourself and the community. Paul Schmitz, CEO of Public Allies and author of Everyone Leads: Building Leadership from the Community Up, will be in Bloomington to share his unique approach to developing leaders, inspiring change, and strengthening community assets. Learn how leadership is a process and not a position—everyone can be an effective leader at all levels of community!

When: Thursday, February 21, 2013

By special arrangement: First at IMU Walnut Room to meet with PACE students, from 4:00-5:00.

Then at City Hall as follows:

5:30 to 6:30 p.m. – Reception; 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. – Presentation

7:30 to 8:00 p.m. – Paul Schmitz available for book signing

Where: City of Bloomington Council Chambers, 401 N. Morton. This program is free and open to the public!

7 ELEVENTH ANNUAL PERMACULTURE COURSE

Information Session for LLC L230 Permaculture: Learning through Nature

Wednesday, February 6, 5:30 p.m., Collins LLC Coffeehouse (pizza and drinks provided)

The course will take place from May 19 through June 2 at the White Violet Center for Eco-Justice in Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana (located west of Terre Haute on the far side of the Wabash River). Permaculture is a design technique for creating sustainable human communities that are in harmony with the natural environment. Students who complete this course not only get three hours of IU credit, but also receive their certification in Permaculture, which enables them to practice and teach the art and science of Permaculture. The course will take place on the grounds of the White Violet Center for Eco-Justice, located on the edge of the Saint Mary-of-the-Woods campus. Students must complete an application and be accepted to register for the course. The application deadline is Monday, April 1st. (Available at: <http://www.indiana.edu/~llc/academics/permaculture.shtml>.) Enrollment is limited to 25 students. In addition to the 3 credit-hour tuition, an additional fee will be charged to cover transportation, food, lodging, facilities, and some course materials. Anyone wanting to know more about the course should email Prof. David Haberman at dhaberma@indiana.edu.

8 APPLY NOW FOR ENGAGE CHICAGO!

Engage Chicago is an immersive field study program, designed to give students a powerful summer learning experience in one of the world's most dynamic cities. Through academic coursework, hands-on experience at top organizations and institutions, thoughtful reflection, and a summer living with a vibrant community of peers, Engage Chicago is a powerful opportunity for students to learn about a great city, about social change, and about themselves. In previous summers, students have interned at organizations such as the Legal Assistance Foundation of Metropolitan Chicago, the Illinois Maternal & Child Health Coalition, and the Chicago Public Schools Office of School Turnaround. They explored the rich culture and history of Chicago and the theories and ideas behind community development work in Field Studies in Civic Engagement, a course taught by Professor John "Jody" Kretzmann, a world leader in community development. Engage Chicago offers students the opportunity to:
