

Changes in the last 10 years

- Student Services condensed to one building
- People Soft
- Hunt Hall
- Updated science resources
- Student areas for IT access
- CARS to tech classrooms
- Sorority created
- Coordinator of Applied Learning position
- Internship programs help with community connectivity and applied learning
- New Chancellor
- IT as approachable – work closely with faculty and departments
- Hybrid/Accel courses
- Reduced emphasis on associate degrees
- Increased emphasis on baccalaureate degrees
- New masters programs
- No limited resources allocated
- Losing personnel/positions
- Bookstore to Barnes and Noble
- Outsourcing as an option
- Emphasis on service learning rose in past 10 years, but now diminishing
- More traditional age students
- Focus on older population technologies
- Wireless connectivity
- OnCourse/SI
- Not out-reach sites
- Internet presence
- More student meeting places
- Classroom flexibility for teaching styles
- No smoking/tobacco use
- New assessment process
- Library changes
- ATM machine
- Security on campus – Escort/call boxes
- IU Notify
- Student/Faculty Learning Communities

- No printed Bulletin
- On-line registration
- No CC on-campus access
- Art Gallery
- Signage
- Parking Garage
- No hallway clocks
- LEC
- CTLA?
- New degrees created
- Office reorganization
- Two assistant Registrars – room scheduling
- Added SSER staff
- Reduced usage in Havens Auditorium
- Less printing/more on-line
- Moving toward paperless
- Electronic billing
- EFT
- Electronic loan checks
- Financial Aid – additional resources for students?
- More with less
- Fewer textbooks – more online resources
- Library resource usage changed – online
- Increased library usage
- Tech savvy students upon entering
- Web page – department web manager
- Common reading program
- Freshman Convocation
- Year-long new faculty orientation
- ADP
- Lecture-Senior lecture promos
- Food service/cafeteria
- Service area focus?
- Increased tuition/costs
- Employee benefit costs increased

-
- Introduced wireless
 - Reliance technology
 - Hunt Hall
 - Leadership changes – Academic and Non-Academic
 - New programs – Undergrad & Graduate

- Out-sourced bookstore
- Classroom reconstruction
- New instructional space – library
- Student population – younger, less motivated
- Ivy Tech
- One Start
- Partnerships (Inventrek)
- Assessment
- Campus Climate
- Infra structure (network)
- Call boxes
- Convocation exercises
- Retention efforts
- More self-reliance – abandonment (IU family)
- Funding
- E-billing
- Online applications
- Mascot
- Cafeteria
- Online Bulletin (negative)
- Learning Community
- Cross-listing with grads (problematic)
- Accel classes – expectations
- Student tech fee
- Retirement plan changes
- Cell phones in class

-
- Addition of merit scholarships
 - Younger age student
 - Campus has not adapted fully to younger student
 - Addition of student services staff to meet student needs
 - Applied learning (student activities)
 - Registrar
 - Financial Aid
 - Informational Management
 - More graduate degrees (MLS, MPM, MSN)
 - Dropped Associate degrees
 - New student information system – People Soft
 - Benefit for admissions – more detail for decision making
 - More collaboration with area colleges

- Dealing with Ivy Tech as Community College
 - Enhanced admission standards
 - Elimination of most remedial courses
 - More new and younger faculty
 - Change in community image – perceived as no longer a community college
 - More efficient in delivery of some services (F.A., Registrar, Admissions)
 - Mode of communication with students and prospects has changed
 - Era of self service – structured, defined, online – students instructed to use
 - Parking is less of a problem with appeals
 - More students enrolling from outside 7-county primary area
 - Greater percentage of minority students; directed recruitment efforts
 - Learning Communities as a key retention strategy
-

- Registration online – fast process, great progress
- Additional building – Tech., Increase in science and math programs
- Change in student body – more traditional students
- Change in leadership – (Deans, President of University, Visions)
- Suspend Associate Degree programs
- Library is increasingly digit
- The Microsoft agreement (students can download software)
- Realignment in student services (Financial Aid and Registration)
- More of a minority in students (Nursing, General Studies, SPEA)
- Addition of masters programs (SPEA, Nursing, MLS, MSED)
- Larger Learning Community
- High Tech Classrooms
- Wireless internet
- Freshman Convocation and orientation leaders – group read in freshman learning
- Quality of students prep
- Stopped remedial programs
- A lot more study rooms for student and student learning (2 student lounges in hall)
- Addition of furniture
- Accel programs have started
- Growth in students in Continuing Studies
- More scholarships to appeal to students (whether coming back or continuing)
- American Democracy program
- Increase in student organizations
- Tobacco free and tighter control on parking
- Higher computer to student ratio in IU System
- Information Commons in the library (computer help section)
- Book store takeover by Barnes & Noble

- Childcare – playground, Division of Education participation
- More international travel
- Moving the SCS to campus
- New programs (New Media, Fine Arts)
- LEC is gone (Math lab and Writing testing center)
- More accommodations for people with disabilities
- Made accommodation to help those with disabilities that are not visible
- Tuition has gone up (fees)

-
- Science building
 - ASN program suspension (all associate degrees)
 - Student demographics (younger, more full time)
 - Move from LEC to Writing Center/Math Lab
 - More online services (Registration, placement testing)
 - Raise admission standards
 - Eliminated/re-categorized some remedial programs
 - New Chancellor
 - Added new degree programs
 - New strategic plan
 - Upgraded technology
Wireless connection, People Soft, High tech classrooms, Info commons in Library
 - Bookstore out-sourcing
 - New branding (Cougars, Visual mark, IU Kokomo “no IUK”, Increased marketing, public relations)
 - 60th Anniversary
 - Cafeteria run by AVI instead of Aramark
 - Remodel of Student Services area
 - Freshman Learning Communities
 - Morning commencement ceremonies
 - New robes for commencement
 - Labor Studies part of School of Social Work
 - Different slogans (Knowledge that Works, IU is RED HOT)
 - Increased student lounge space
 - More promotion of activities
 - Student engagement increased
 - Sorority
 - Hybrid/ACCEL courses
 - Project Complete
 - STAR scholarship program
 - Pay bursar bill online
 - Email
 - Picnic tables outside

- Student friendly atmosphere
 - No smoking policy
 - Child care improvements
 - Parking garage
 - Welcome Center
 - Main entrance moved from Main to Kelley Center
 - Fall Convocation for students
 - Emergency Notification (cell phone/text message, call boxes in parking lots)
 - International exchange (Nursing)
 - Study Abroad programs
 - International studies minor
 - More isolated from rest of community
-

- Getting rid of ASN program
 - More bachelor degrees
 - New facility growth
 - The unused underground parking
 - Gone smoke free
 - Offering more scholarship funds
 - Growth in ACP program
 - More masters degrees
 - Demographics have changed (shift in age with younger population)
 - More recruiting programs in admissions
 - Campus community communication is weak
 - Co-location with the Bursar department
 - Learning Communities – freshmen have a good start
 - Retention (losing more students – Freshman leaving)
 - Moved computer labs to Library more reliable, also Writing Center
 - Much more high tech – internet
 - Every classroom has a computer (projectors, instructional aids)
 - Onestart (Oncourse)
 - Offer accelerated courses
 - Once a week classes are leaving
 - Parking meters are gone – attached to registration
 - New student orientation – more activities
 - More student activities – sorority
 - Graduation indoors
-

- More traditional population
- Tobacco free
- Science building

- Oncourse – IT develop infrastructure, wireless, OneStart, Info commons
- Inefficient use of space – Science building
- New lecture hall in East building
- Out-sourcing affects population
- Child care, too confined
- Going to bachelor degrees
- Offices online, e-bill, financial aid