experiences from the past year. Taking the form of moderated roundtable discussions, attendees can relate challenges, triumphs, achievements, and plans for the future. Aside from an opportunity to solicit and receive advice from professional peers, this networking colloquium would offer attendees the opportunity for collaboration, inspiration, and to simply gain a better sense of the work done around the IU community. It is also an opportunity to discuss shared IU services and resources.

InULA Research Incentive Grant Fund Application Deadline

Need monetary support for research or research-related activities? The InULA Grants Fund is intended to encourage and support research by providing funding for projects of any size or scope. Grant applications are now being accepted through April 15, 2019. Guidelines and application information can be found at: http://www.indiana.edu/~inula/wp_2012/inula-research-incentive-fund-guidelines/. You must be a current member of InULA to be eligible. The InULA Grants and Scholarship Committee will review grant applications using a newly-revised rubric. In the case of equally meritorious proposals, those of non-tenured librarians may be given priority because it is often difficult for beginning researchers to obtain research grants. Recommendations will then be made to the InULA Executive Board for approval and funding. Notice of awards is provided to applicants as soon as possible. Can't get an application in by April 15? The next fund deadlines will be October 15, 2019 and January 15, 2020.

Please contact the committee chair for more information or with questions.

Volunteers Needed for InULA Book Sale

Support the Indiana University Librarians Association by helping with its annual book sale! Proceeds are used to fund InULA's scholarships and grants for research and professional development.

If you can spare two or more hours, the InULA Book Sale Committee would very much appreciate your assistance in setting up the sale the day before, helping to run the sale on Saturday, and/or cleaning up on Saturday evening. This is a great opportunity to get to know some of your colleagues and feel great about the contribution you're making to InULA! Use this website to sign up for volunteer shifts.

Friday, April 12, 2019 -- Setup
10:00am to 4:00pm
Help bring boxes of books down from the eleventh floor storage area, remove the books from boxes, and arrange them on tables in Wells Library room E174.

Saturday, April 13, 2019 -- Book Sale and Cleanup
8:00am to 8:00pm
Help with the sale in a variety of ways including door security during the preview sale, helping major buyers transport purchases to the parking lot, tidying up throughout the day, and collecting money from buyers. Help pack unsold books into boxes and take them to the loading dock area.

Volunteers may select a couple of the regularly priced books at no cost in return for their work. Thank you in advance!
