ART OF LEADERSHIP EXHIBITION

“The Art of Leadership: An Exhibition from the Senatorial Papers of Birch Bayh” is now on display in the main gallery of the Lilly Library. Birch Bayh accomplished an extraordinary amount during his three-term career as U.S. Senator from Indiana (1963-1980). The outlines of that career are highlighted in this exhibition, with an attempt to provide insights into the nature of his unique legislative leadership. Included is documentation of his achievements in amending the Constitution to ensure orderly presidential succession (25th Amendment) and to lower the voting age to 18 (26th Amendment), and in federal disaster relief, the struggle of African-Americans for social and economic justice, elimination of discrimination against women, judicial ethics, juvenile delinquency and reform of the juvenile justice system, drug abuse and regulation, the rights of citizens vis-à-vis the intelligence requirements for national security, oversight of the oil industry, development of alternative fuels, and patent law and technology transfer. Also included are materials documenting his Indiana legislative career (1955-1961) and his continuous and ongoing efforts to bring about direct popular election of the President. The exhibition runs from January 29 through May 5, 2007. The Lilly Library is open from 9 to 6 Monday through Friday and from 9 to 1 on Saturday.

MESSAGE FROM InULA

InULA, The Indiana University Librarian's Association, is an organization of librarians at IU that promotes excellence in library service and provides opportunities for continuing education and professional development. As part of that goal, InULA offers the Julieann V. Nilson scholarship to SLIS students. This year's deadline for InULA scholarships is March 1st. The InULA board has made available $3,000 to fund this year's scholarship winners. Awards of $1,000 to $1500 will be presented to deserving candidates. InULA scholarships are intended to encourage and reward the potential for excellence in the library and information science profession.

Please see <http://www.iu.edu/~inula/opportunities/scholarship/scholguide.html> for full information and application procedures.
