GENERAL INFORMATION

The office of the Center is in Room 220 of the South Bend Central High School. When classes are in progress, the office is open from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday; Friday, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 12 m. No Saturday hours during June, July, and August. Special hours as posted during vacations. Usual holidays observed. Telephone 3-1717. Hours are indicated below during which enrollments may be made.

Many of the classes of the Center are held in the Central High School building. Therefore, the state law which prohibits smoking in public school buildings at any time and prohibits smoking about the buildings during the day must be observed. It is the policy of the Center to give full cooperation to the enforcement of this regulation. The registration of any student who refuses cooperation may be cancelled with forfeiture of credit and without financial consideration.

Enrollment Hours and Registration Information

During the Enrollment Week, September 10-15, enrollments may be made only during the following hours: Monday through Thursday, 12 m. to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m.; Friday, 12 m. to 4 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. to 12 m. Starting September 17 late enrollments may be made only during regularly scheduled afternoon and evening hours as listed above. No enrollment is official until all required forms have been completed, fees provided for, and appropriate clearance of student's admission status has been secured.

After initial enrollment no change in schedule may be made during the enrollment period and no applications for change will be acted on until Friday of the first week of classes.

General Bulletin

For information about the following see the General Bulletin available at the Center Office, in your Public Library, in your high school principal's office, and perhaps in your plant personnel office:

Admission requirements	Refund regulations
Credit toward a degree	Veterans information
Graduate degrees	Counseling service
Hours of credit	Suggestions of courses to take
Credit points	Freshman programs

Fees

Fees are based on the amount of work taken, each subject costing residents of Indiana $8 a credit hour except for graduate courses, where the rate is $12 per credit hour, and a few courses where a small laboratory fee is also required. For nonresidents of Indiana, fees are $12 per credit hour for both undergraduate and graduate courses. Payment of fees is due in full at time of enrollment. Laboratory fees are as follows: Chemistry C101, C102, C105, C106, C241 and C242—$5 each course; Physics P201 and P202—$5 each course; Typing C221 and C222—$3 each course; Shorthand C251 and C252—$3 each course; Physical Education—$3 for each course.

A full-time study program of fifteen or sixteen hours costs the student from $120 to $128 per semester plus laboratory fees, with books costing about $15 to $30 additional per semester. Books and fees on such a program will cost the student a minimum total of about $270 and a maximum total of $316 per year on a two-semester basis. Part-time students pay in exact proportion to the amount of work taken, with total fees and books for those who take five or six hours per semester varying from about $40 to $50 per semester or $80 to $100 per year on a two-semester basis. (Students taking Mechanical Drawing should add $10 to these estimates.)

Students may arrange to pay fees of more than $25 in two installments, the first of which must be at least two-fifths of the total fee or $25 (whichever is the greater). The first payment is due upon enrollment, the second on or before October 22 (March 10 for the second semester). A charge of $1 is added to the first payment when deferred fees are arranged.

Application for deferred fees must be made on forms available at the Center Office. No credit may be received until all fees are paid.

Adult Courses and Series

The Center offers numerous non-credit courses and series. Since these courses carry no university credit, admission to Indiana University is not a prerequisite to attendance.

Counseling Hours

All students who plan to matriculate later on the Bloomington campus are required to meet with the Academic Counselor for the regular orientation tests and academic counseling which are given to all students of Indiana University. The orientation tests are scheduled to be given August 25, 9 a.m. to 12 m.; September 27, 2 to 5 p.m.; December 13, 7 to 9 p.m.; February 7, 9 a.m. to 12 m.; April 24, 2 to 5 p.m.; and June 19, 7 to 10 p.m. Students planning to take the tests should notify the Counselor's office of this fact prior to the date of testing.

During regularly scheduled enrollment periods Academic Counselors are available, Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m.; Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 12 m.

During the semesters and the summer session Academic Counselors are available Monday through Thursday, 2:30 to 4 p.m. and 6:30 to 8 p.m., and on first and third Saturdays of each month from 10 a.m. to 12 m. During vacations, hours as posted; other hours by appointment.

Tutor List

In the office and in the library there is posted a list of approved tutors for most courses listed in this bulletin. All arrangements must be made by the student with the tutor.

Library

Books may be borrowed from the library of the Center for one week, subject to a renewal. Reserve books may be used only in the library. The University Center Library (Room 217) is open Monday through Thursday, 12 noon to 9:30 p.m.; Friday, from 12 noon to 7 p.m.; and 8 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday. Usual holidays observed.

The South Bend Public Library and its branches and the Mishawaka Public Library have many books available for the use of students of the Center. Staff members of these libraries will be glad to assist in selecting books and otherwise serving students. Students from Bourbon, Elkhart, Goshen, La Porte, Michigan City, New Carlisle, Niles (Mich.), and Plymouth will find similar services available in their communities.

Any student failing to return library books or failing to pay fines or for extraordinary damage to library books will be added to the University checklist until satisfactory settlement is made.

Social Activities

A Language and History Club has been formed by interested students at the Center. The monthly meeting of the club combines entertainment and an intellectually stimulating program. The tentative programs include: Panel discussions, lectures, films, and basic French pronunciation rules. Topics for discussion are decided by popular vote. The club is open to all interested persons; no formal background in either language or history is necessary. Mrs. de Lara and Mr. Lindemann are the faculty sponsors of the organization.

Students interested in assisting in the publication of the quarterly newspaper, the I. U. Center News, are invited to contact either Mr. Robinson or Mrs. de Lara, the faculty sponsors. Students may gain experience in writing, business management, and newspaper editorship by participation in this activity.

Beginning with the fall semester the YMCA is sponsoring in cooperation with the Center a fellowship group. This organization will be open to all interested students—men and women—and has as its objective the encouragement of student understanding and appreciation of their fellow human beings. The first meeting will be held in November and students are asked to leave their names with our Academic Counselor if they are interested in the group. Further announcements will be found in the I. U. Center News.

Publications

The Second Semester Schedule will be available about January 1; the Summer Schedule in April. Students enrolled at the Center are automatically mailed current schedules; however, any who fail to receive them will be mailed them upon request.

Quarterly, the Center publishes the I. U. Center News—a paper designed to acquaint students with items of interest in regard to both the South Bend-Mishawaka Center and the Bloomington campus.

An annual General Bulletin, issued by the Division of Adult Education and Public Services for the use of all the Off-Campus Centers, will be available after August 10 for reference in regard to course descriptions and other general information.

ADULT EDUCATION LECTURE SERIES AND COURSES

A primary purpose of the Center is to offer educational opportunities to adults who can profit therefrom regardless of previous educational experiences.

Adults, whether high school graduates or not, may enroll in regular University credit courses as auditors. The fees are the same as if taken for credit unless announced otherwise. See pages 24-27 for the schedule of credit courses offered.

Public Lecture Series and Adult Study Courses are offered at special rates. Fees for such series or courses may not be deferred and are due at enrollment. Single admissions and refunds are not available. Enrollment has been made a relatively simple procedure. When necessary to limit the number in courses or series, reservations will be made for those who have already completed enrollments. If a course or series is cancelled, a complete refund is available or a transfer to another course or series.

Art Appreciation

An introductory and comparative study of a few great periods in art. The objectives are to acquaint students with selected masterpieces of art and to foster an appreciation of art through an increased knowledge of materials, techniques, form, and content.

Taught by Reginald H. Neal, Director of the South Bend Art Association, Wednesday afternoons, 2 to 4 p.m., starting September 19 and continuing for the entire fall semester. Offered at the Art Center at 620 West Washington. Fee $5.

(This course may be taken by credit students for two hours of credit in Art Appreciation H100, fee $14.)

Audubon Wildlife Screen Tours

The South Bend-Mishawaka Center cooperates with the South Bend Audubon Society in the presentation of outstanding illustrated lectures on natural history. These lectures include all-color motion pictures on a host of nature subjects. Variety is the essence of the programs. They run a gamut from birds, insects, fish, mammals, to water, soil, scenery, and flowers. All programs are presented in the Auditorium of the Central High School. Admission fee: $2 for adults; $1 for school children. No single admissions. Those who send checks in appropriate amount, along with names and addresses, will be mailed an associate membership and admission card along with a copy of the program for the year. Checks may be sent to the Indiana University Center but should be made payable to the South Bend Audubon Society.

Program for 1951-52:

October 26.	Paul Bunyan Country	Walter J. Breckenridge
November 30.	Utah and National Parks	Sam Campbell
December 15.	The Riddle of Migration	Roger Tory Peterson
February 29.	Canada East	Bert Harwell

Business English

Practice in using correct and forceful English in business correspondence; class discussion on style, structure, and aims of business letters; study in principles and types of correspondence; practice in preparing application, credit and collection, sales, and adjustment letters. Seventeen successive Tuesday evenings, 8-9:30, beginning September 18, Room 103. Fee $10. Taught by Florence Roell.

Great Books Seminars

These seminars are for those who desire to study and discuss the great books of Western civilization dealing with the fundamental theoretical and practical problems that have confronted mankind in every generation. Generally only significant parts of books are assigned.

The sessions are conducted informally with two leaders prompting discussion. Seminars will be offered in both South Bend and Mishawaka during 1951-52, starting in September and meeting twice monthly until June.

The Great Books program in the South Bend-Mishawaka area is offered by the Center in cooperation with St. Mary's College, the University of Notre Dame, the South Bend Public Library, the Mishawaka Public Library, and the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. of South Bend.

Sets of the Great Books are published by the Great Books Foundation and are sold by the Bookstore of the Center.

Further information about the Great Books Seminars during 1951-52 is available at the Center and the public library in South Bend.

Health In Today's World, II

A series of six lectures designed to acquaint the lay person with basic facts about his mind and body. Dr. Louis How will be the general coordinator for the series with lecturers including various doctors in the county. The series will revolve about discussions of cancer and mental health. Lecture outlines available on request.

The series is sponsored by the Rural Health Committee of the Indiana State Medical Association and the St. Joseph County Medical Society, in cooperation with the Center.

The group will meet for six successive Tuesday evenings, 8 to 9:30 p.m., beginning September 18 in room 224 of Central High School. Fee: $3. No meetings open to visitors.

Insurance — C.L.U. Program (Life Insurance)

Part C: Law, Trusts, and Taxes

Part C of the C.L.U. (Chartered Life Underwriters) program covers a review and study of: 1. General Commercial Law, including the Law of Life Insurance; 2. Wills, Trusts, and Estates; 3. Taxation and Business Insurance.

Thirty successive Mondays (except for usual holidays), 7:15 to 9:15 p.m., beginning September 17, in Room 205. Fee for the entire course $48. Minimum enrollment 15. The course will be taught by Warren Deahl.

Insurance — Fire and Marine

A two-semester program covering fire insurance and collateral lines, inland marine insurance, and a few miscellaneous lines. Upon satisfactory completion of the entire standard course, a certificate will be awarded by the University.

Seventeen meetings on Monday evenings, 5 to 7 p.m., starting September 17. Taught by Ronald E. Bassett. Fee $24 per semester. Room 205.

(Note: The two-semester Casualty Insurance course will be offered during 1952-53 if there is sufficient demand. The Fire and Marine course will probably not be offered again until 1953-54.)

Interior Decorating

- September 20. Fundamentals in Decorating
- September 27. Color in Paint (Mixing and Applying)
- October 4. Planning Color Schemes for the Home
- October 11. Walls and Wallpapers
- October 18. Fabrics (Drapery and Upholstery)

This series of five lectures on Interior Decorating will be delivered during the fall semester by Elton Breckenridge, lecturer, designer, and teacher of Chicago. Mr. Breckenridge will illustrate his lectures with materials and slides.

Mr. Breckenridge is a graduate of the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and is at present teaching Interior Decorating at the Institute. In addition, his teaching responsibilities include lectures at the Gary Center of Indiana University and in the Pestalozzi-Froebel Teachers College. Mr. Breckenridge does professional decorating.

The fee for the entire series will be $3. The class is scheduled to be held on Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Little Theatre of Central High School. No meetings open to visitors.

International Relations

The Center cooperates with the South Bend-Mishawaka International Relations Council in presenting its annual lecture series. The speakers are nationally known and their discussions are informative in regard to current international trends and problems. All meetings are in the South Bend Central High School Auditorium. Printed programs for the 1951-52 series are available at the Center. Meetings begin promptly at 8 p.m. and are followed by a question period and adjournment around 9:30 p.m. A social hour follows at which the speaker of the evening may be interrogated informally.

Membership in the International Relations Council is open to interested individuals and includes free admission to the annual series and such additional meetings as may be scheduled. Adult membership: $2; student membership: 50 cents (open to students enrolled in either credit or non-credit classes at the Indiana University Center).

The Lyric Choral Society

The Lyric Choral Society of the Indiana University Center is a mixed chorus of fifty voices, affiliated since 1941 with the Center. Under the direction of Maurice Ivins, of Chicago, the Choir has contributed to the cause of good music in the South Bend area by fine renditions of choral music.

Interested singers of the region may apply for membership, but admission to the organization rests with the organization's membership committee and the director. A registration fee of $4 a semester is required of all members. Rehearsals are held on Tuesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Room 108. First rehearsal, September 18.

One credit hour per semester may be granted persons who fulfill the requirement of regular attendance and payment of an additional fee of $4.

Music Appreciation

Seventeen weeks of music listening and interpretation. What is good music? What makes it great? A discussion of the development of music from mere sounds to the great compositions of the nineteenth century. The course includes an introduction to music and how to listen to it. Form and style of musical compositions throughout the ages will be discussed. Compositions of Brahms, Mozart, Chopin, Wagner, Haydn, Beethoven, Schubert, Bach, and others will be heard through the medium of recordings.

Mr. Cecil Deardorff will present this series of Evenings with Great Composers on Mondays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Room 108, beginning on September 17. Fee $5.

(This course may be taken by credit students for two hours of credit as Appreciation of Music M174, fee $16.)

New Testament Literature

The lectures are a study of the authors, canon, dates, origins, purposes, literary style, etc., of the twenty-seven books. This course presents a comprehensive view of New Testament literature. Ten Monday evenings, 8 to 9:15, beginning September 17. The course is taught by Dr. Charles T. Baillie. Fee $5. This course will be offered in North Liberty the first semester and in South Bend Central High School during the second semester.

Opera

In cooperation with the Northern Indiana Conservatory of Music the Center is sponsoring a course in opera which combines discussions of opera history with experiments in opera production. The course will cover in historical sequence the development of opera from Peri and Monteverdi to Berg and Wozzek. The first hour of each session is given to lectures and discussion on opera and the last two hours of each meeting is devoted to the production of the scenes and arias from opera study.

The course will be taught by Aleksis Kuchunas who comes to South Bend from Chicago to teach this course. In addition to his present teaching responsibilities in Chicago, Mr. Kuchunas has had wide experience in the European opera field.

This course will be held in the Northern Indiana Conservatory of Music Building, 509 West Washington Avenue, with registration at the Center. The non-credit fee for the course will be $2. As in the case of all applied music courses, an additional fee of $34 is to be paid directly to the instructor. The course may also be taken for two semester hours of credit as Music, R173. (See page 27.)

Recent Important Books Seminar

A book review-discussion series concerning six recent and important books. This seminar is offered in cooperation with the South Bend and Mishawaka public libraries. The books selected consider a variety of basic ideas and problems relevant to both the age in which we live and to problems met throughout man's venture in civilization. A primary purpose of this seminar is to stimulate increased reading of recent important books and greater use of public libraries by adults.

Meetings are on alternate Wednesday evenings so that time is available to read and study each book in advance of its review and discussion. Each lecturer will devote forty minutes to reviewing his book. Following, there will be discussion based on questions raised by members of the seminar.

The course will meet in Room 114 (Little Theatre) on alternate Wednesdays, 8 to 9:30 p.m., as indicated below. Fee $2.

Review Accounting

A number of different courses in accounting are included each semester among the University credit courses. These include both the introductory and advanced courses through C.P.A. Problems (the more advanced courses are offered in alternate years). Adults not interested in degree programs may enroll as Special Students* in any accounting course for which they are prepared. See page 25 for accounting courses offered this semester. The Academic Counselor and his staff will be glad to advise concerning appropriate placement and related items. Adults may use accounting courses either for review or to increase their preparation.

Review Algebra

The Intermediate and College Algebra course is approximately the equivalent of third- and fourth-semester high school algebra, but includes some review of previous work in algebra. Those with an understanding of the basic principles of algebra may enroll in this course as Special Students* either to review their previous work or to increase their understanding of the subject. The Academic Counselor and his staff will be glad to advise regarding placement and related items.

Review English

Thorough drill in the essentials of simple grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, and word usage. Useful for high school graduates not sufficiently prepared for college composition or for others who may need review of this subject. Offered on seventeen successive Monday evenings, from 7 to 8:50, by Marcella Hartman, starting September 17. Enrollment limited to 25. Room 218. Fee $10.

Review Shorthand

Three different courses in shorthand are included among the University credit courses offered during the present semester, beginning with the introductory course in shorthand and including one course in Advanced Shorthand. Those not interested in degree programs may enroll as Special Students* in any shorthand course for which they are prepared. See page 25 for shorthand courses offered this semester. The Academic Counselor and his staff will be glad to give suggestions concerning appropriate placement and related items. Adults may use shorthand courses either for review or to increase their preparation.

Review Typewriting

Two different courses in typing are included among the University credit courses offered during the present semester, beginning with the introductory course in typing. Those not interested in degree programs may enroll as Special Students* in any course for which they are prepared. See page 25 for typing courses offered this semester. The Academic Counselor and his staff will be glad to advise concerning appropriate placement and related items. Adults may use typing courses either for review or to increase their preparation.

* These courses are regular University credit courses but may be taken by Special Students without formal admission. See General Bulletin concerning status of Special Students.

A School for Parents and Teachers

A School for Parents and Teachers is a coordinated series of four lectures and a forum, making a total of five meetings. Each of the lectures is presented by an individual who has had practical experience in the subject which he discusses. All the speakers have made a special study of the particular problem which they treat. The lectures are organized in such a way that the group of five meetings is a complete educational unit in itself, and individuals should attend all the meetings to get the complete story.

The administrative plan of this series of lectures is as follows. Each lecturer discusses his subject in an understandable, practical manner in about fifty minutes. A discussion period will follow the lecture. In addition, small cards are passed out to the audience when they come to the lecture hall. The audience is asked to write out any question or subject which they would like to have answered or clarified in the open forum which is the fifth and last meeting of the series.

September 17. Building Sound Personalities

NowDr. Margaret Nesbitt Murphy
In the first few months of life, in infancy, and the pre-school years, a foundation is laid for further growth during school years. From the time the child is born and during the early years of his life, parents' recognition of the basic needs and encouragement of use of emerging abilities play an important part in the child's feeling of security, his contentment, self-confidence, initiative, and resourcefulness.

October 1. What Social Activities Are Wholesome for Children?Mrs. Margaret Mercille

This discussion will involve the practical problem of determining the place that the social life plays in the development of the growing child. Such practical issues as when to say "no" and how to say it will be dealt with.

October 15. Understanding Your Child's School

LifeDr. Christian W. Jung
An attempt will be made to coordinate the home and the school by explaining to the parents the school's place in a child's development.

October 29. In What Kind of Home Does Your Child

Grow Best?Mrs. Rebecca Nelson Mitchell
This talk will involve the environmental atmosphere in which the child spends the greater part of his time. The discussion will bring attention to the importance of the home in the child's growth and the part that the mother and father can play to see that the child's home education supports him in his role for life.

November 12. Open Forum Session

The sessions will be held in Room 114 (Little Theatre) on alternate Mondays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. No meetings open to visitors. Fee $2.

Taxes — State Gross Income

A general study of the State Gross Income Tax with attention laid on the requirements that an individual must meet in filing a return. Various types of incomes, expenses, deductions, and credits will be outlined, and time will be given to the study and preparation of model tax returns.
