PRESENTATION TO

BLOOMINGTON FACULTY COUNCIL

BY VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS SCOTT DOLSON
JANUARY 18, 2022

IU ATHLETICS FIVE PRIORITIES

These five priorities are our guiding principles, and the benchmarks that we use when making both short-term and long-term decisions and evaluating our department's efforts:

- Playing By the Rules
- Holistic Care and Development of Student-Athletes
- Academic Excellence
- Athletic Excellence
- Integrating with University

PRIORITY – PLAYING BY THE RULES

A strict code of following all NCAA, Big Ten and Indiana University rules and policies

- Playing by the rules is the top priority in our department
 - We are one of the few P5 institutions that publicly makes this a top priority
 - Since adopting this as our #1 priority, IU has not had a major infraction
- Playing by the rules is a shared responsibility for all IU staff members
- The Office of Compliance Services, in addition to its monitoring responsibilities, places a high emphasis on educating staff and student-athletes on NCAA/B1G rules and regulations
- NCAA Convention
 - This convention will set the stage for transformational change within Division I
 - The NCAA membership will look to adopt a new NCAA constitution on Jan. 20, 2022
 - The adoption of the new NCAA constitution will unlock the ability for Division I to reimagine itself to best meet the needs of current and future NCAA Division I student-athletes
 - This process will be completed in two steps
 1. Developed the constitutional committee that redrafted the NCAA constitution (process will be complete with the adoption of the recommended NCAA constitution on Jan. 20, 2022);
 2. Developed the transformational committee that will drive the process to reimagine aspects of Division I (e.g., what it means to be a Division I member, revenue sharing, governance, etc.)

PRIORITY – STUDENT-ATHLETE WELL-BEING

COVID-19 Response

Dating back to the cancelation of the 2020 Big Ten Men's Basketball tournament on March 12, 2020, the health and safety of our student-athletes, coaches, staff, fans and community has continued to be our priority.
