3D digitization, born-digital 3D objects, and Virtual Reality (VR) - the techniques to create these kinds of items and the access and scholarly research applications for these items within libraries and cultural heritage institutions are becoming more real (and less virtual) as costs come down and technical equipment becomes more friendly to use. IU already has 3D digital collections that are actively growing. We need a way to describe these items so they are discoverable and accessible for research use, even when that means extremely large files that can require specialized software to recreate or evaluate the models. We also need to be able to preserve 3D digital and VR objects. This talk will consider how we can accomplish these goals, the work currently occurring among libraries and cultural heritage institutions, and how best to apply metadata in the third dimension.

The Digital Library Brown Bag series is held Wednesdays in the Herman B Wells Library from 12:00pm-1:00pm EST. The complete schedule, including abstracts, is available at: <http://libraries.indiana.edu/digital-library-brown-bag-series>.

Upcoming Application Deadline for the InULA Grants Fund

Need monetary support for research or research-related activities? The InULA Grants Fund is intended to encourage and support research by providing funding for projects of any size or scope. Grant applications are now being accepted through April 16, 2018. Guidelines and application information can be found at: http://www.indiana.edu/~inula/wp_2012/inula-research-incentive-fund-guidelines/. You must be a current member of InULA to be eligible. The InULA Grants and Scholarship Committee will review grant applications using a rubric. In the case of equally meritorious proposals, those of non-tenured librarians may be given priority because it is often difficult for beginning researchers to obtain research grants. Recommendations will then be made to the InULA Executive Board for approval and funding. Notice of awards is provided to applicants as soon as possible. Can't get an application in by April 16? The next fund deadline is October 15, 2018.

Please contact the committee chair for more information or with questions.
