INDIANA CHAPTER TO HOST THE 6TH GREAT LAKES REGIONAL CONFERENCE "THE CROSSROADS FOR INFORMATION PROFESSIONALS"

September 6-8, 2006

Indianapolis, Indiana

The 6th Great Lakes Regional Conference and Exhibition will be at the University Place Conference Center & Hotel on the Indiana University - Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) campus.

(www.universityplace.iupui.edu). Registration is open! Register now for early bird pricing!

The "Crossroads for Informational Professionals" will offer educational and networking opportunities for attendees and vendors. Programs will address technical and practical issues of interest to corporate, academic, government, and other special librarians. We're not all work and no play ~ there will be two evening receptions for networking in a more relaxed atmosphere. Tours of Indianapolis special libraries will be offered during the afternoon of September 8, 2006.

Our keynote speaker for Thursday, September 7th will be Jeffrey Cufaude of Idea Architects. Mr. Cufaude has spoken to many different groups around the United States and comes to the Great Lakes Regional Conference very highly recommended. A former association executive and university student affairs staff member, Jeffrey Cufaude writes, speaks, and consults on a variety of leadership and organizational development issues for associations and the stakeholders they serve.

The official conference Web site is
