YALSA has just announced its list of "Outstanding Books for the College Bound and Lifetime Learners" for 2014. Of course, working in a library automatically classifies you as a lifetime learner, so this list is definitely worth checking out. The list is made up of books from five categories: Arts and Humanities, History and Cultures, Literature and Language Arts, Science and Technology, and Social Sciences. For more on the creators of this year's list, and to view the list itself, check out the press release.

Digital Library Brown Bag: February 19

Please join us this coming Wednesday, February 19 for a Digital Library Brown Bag Series presentation by Jon Dunn, William G. Cowan, and Mark Notess. The presentation will be held at the Herman B Wells Library, room E174, from 12:00pm - 1:00pm. The presentation will also be broadcasted (see details below).

IU's Participation in the Hydra Project: Many Heads, One Repository Solution Framework

Jon Dunn, Interim Assistant Dean for Library Technologies

The Hydra Project is a large collaboration among many institutions sharing needs for open software digital repository solutions. Indiana University is a Hydra Partner, and as such, is both developing new Hydra "heads" and leveraging heads developed by other partners. In this presentation, we will describe the Hydra Project objectives, the primary components of the technology (Fedora, Solr, Blacklight), how the community collaborates, and the benefits of this collaboration. The Avalon Media System was our first Hydra-based project, but now we are also collaborating on a new institutional repository solution as well as a new "page turner" Hydra head for digitized paged media. The Hydra Partner community holds great promise for lower cost, tailorable digital repositories for libraries and archives.

Presentations will also be broadcast via Adobe Connect. Go to <http://breeze.iu.edu/diglib> to view and listen to the presentation. If you are not a registered user for Connect Meeting/Breeze, select the "Enter as a Guest" option.

You can also follow and contribute to the presentation and discussion on twitter: #dlbb.

The Digital Library Brown Bag series is held most Wednesdays this spring semester. All presentations are in the Herman B Wells Library room E174 from 12:00pm-1:00pm. The complete schedule, including abstracts, is available here.

To receive a reminder and an abstract for each presentation, send an email to tojulist@iulist.indiana.edu with the message body: sub dl-brownbag-I Your Full Name.

The Digital Library Brown Bag Series is part of the Digital Initiatives track of the Scholars' Commons Series. As research initiatives increasingly rely on technology as a significant mode for inquiry, the Digital Initiatives track will address cutting-edge and emerging topics that shape this new scholarly endeavor. The Scholars' Commons Series features a full schedule of events ranging from basic introductions to core research tools, to workshops for dissertation writers, to talks by cutting edge digital scholars. DEADLINE EXTENDED! The Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award deadline has been extended to Friday, March 7. Employees of the IU Libraries system who hold an MLS degree or have equivalent experience are invited to submit applications for the Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award. All IU Libraries staff on all campuses in clerical, technical, and PA positions, and all individuals with librarian appointments are eligible to apply for this award. The White Award has been established to support the career growth of individuals who have chosen librarianship as a profession. Further information about the award, the process, eligibility, criteria, and the application form are available on the web.

The deadline for applications is Friday, March 7. Please send your information to Julie Ranz, Advancement Associate, jranz@indiana.edu, Wells 234, Bloomington.

The IU Libraries Scholarship and Award Committee will make the award decision and complete notification letters at the beginning of April. Dean Johnson will publicly announce the award recipient's name at the annual Retirement and Recognition Reception in Bloomington in April, and at Librarians' Day, scheduled for June.

you to submit a proposal to present at the Spring 2014 IOLUG program, "Library Road Maps: Patrons in the Driver's Seat" on Friday, May 16 at Indiana Wesleyan University's Indianapolis North campus. Submit your proposal using the online form by NOON, Monday, March 10. Get some inspiration from previous years' sessions on the IOLUG website.

Libraries and librarians are continually evolving as we embrace community and cultural changes affecting our resources and services. Have you conducted usability studies to redesign your library's website? Are you redesigning a space in your library based on user feedback? Have you recently implemented patron-driven acquisition? If so, we invite you to submit a proposal for the Spring IOLUG 2014 program! Some suggested topics to consider:

- Patron-driven Acquisition
- Maker Spaces
- Designing Library Websites to Meet User Needs
- Creating New Services or Redesigning Services to Meet User Needs
- User Experience and Usability Studies
- Anthropological and Ethnographic Studies
- Methods for Feedback Gathering
- Self-service Models
- ...and any other topics that puts the library in the hands of the patrons!
