EMPLOYER PANEL: MARKETING YOURSELF FOR THE JOB AND INTERNSHIP SEARCH
Tuesday, November 1, 6:30-8:00 PM

Whittenberger Auditorium, IMU

What does it take to effectively market yourself as a young professional? Join a diverse panel of employers that actively recruit students through the Career Development Center for a panel discussion, Q&A and networking. Employers will provide advice on effective networking/job search strategies, resume/cover letter development, interview preparation and negotiation and the college-to-work transition. Registration required through your myIUcareers account.

REGISTER FOR A WINTER BREAK SERVICE TRIP COURSE WITH LEAD IU!

Are you taking a winter break service trip with your student organization? Consider registering for EDU U495, Seminar in Leadership Training, Topic: Alternative Break Trip. This second 8 weeks course is designed for students from a variety of trips being offered across campus by student organizations and other IU programs.

The Journey Fellowship will bring together 30 college students from around Indiana who desire to explore career opportunities working with youth. Fellows attend three all-expense-paid retreats focused on personal/professional leadership and career exploration, benefit from executive coaching, have the opportunity to connect with state and national leaders in the youth development field, participate in a 150 hour

PACE News

There is a NEW feature for spring registration: The course descriptions link is no longer being used at the Registrar's complete listing of courses offered for spring. This full listing, though, is still the best way to get an overview of what is being offered for the semester:

<http://registrar.indiana.edu/scheduleoclasses/prl/soc4122/index.html>

You will now be able to see a course description for any class through the Class Search in OneStart or when you are searching to add courses to your Enrollment Shopping Cart (which you can do before you register). Click on the DETAILS link of your search results to see the description.

You can see the classes offered in spring that count for PACE on the PACE homepage:

Spring 2012 courses for the PACE certificate
<http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/Spr2012%20PACE%20courses.pdf>

The descriptions of PACE courses follow the list. Joeline is also consulting with students now about their curriculum in order to fit in different priorities with the PACE certificate. Please call the office to reserve a time to meet.

Local Volunteer Opportunities

BOWL FOR KIDS' SAKE COMMITTEE WITH BIG BROTHERS BIG SISTERS
Thursday, Oct. 20 and on-going
7:00 PM, SPEA Room 274

Bowl for Kids' Sake works like a charity walk, where teams raise money from their friends and family over several months, but with bowling instead of walking. There is an IU student-only bowling night to celebrate the end of the campaign with prizes, music, food and games. Each team's goal is to raise $1,000 before the bowling event in February. It costs the agency $1,000 to support one Big/Little mentoring match for a year, and each team can make that relationship happen for one more child. Learn valuable skills like fundraising, marketing/sales, public speaking, event planning and more! No cost.

SWITCHYARD PROPERTY CLEANUP - Oct. 22

Over the next several years, the Switchyard property, a 28-acre parcel on the southern section of the B-Line Trail, will transform from an abandoned railroad hub into a beautiful community park destination. You can play a role by participating in a cleanup on Oct. 22 from 1-3 p.m. The property is located at 245 W. Grimes Lane.

TRICK OR TREAT FOR CANS

Halloween, Monday, October 31, 4:30 PM
Union Street Auditorium

A fun service opportunity where students dress up in costume and go trick or treating, but instead of candy they request canned goods donations for Hoosier Hills Food Bank. At 7 PM there will be pizza/drinks for students returning with donations.

Other Opportunities

ATTENTION, REFLECTION, CONNECTION: STEPS TOWARD AN INCLUSIVE CAMPUS

Action Plan Call Out meeting

Sunday, Nov. 6, 2-5:30 PM

Alumni Hall/Solarium, IMU

ARC is made up of students, staff, and faculty who have organized events to engage all students, staff, and faculty in reaching across cultural and institutional lines to participate in the multicultural richness of our campus and community. They are interested in partnering with groups and individuals from the Bloomington campus or community on projects aimed at promoting inclusiveness both on campus and beyond.
